NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1728, (Senate Bill No. 1131), file folio 3793, entitled:

An Act making it unlawful to enter for certain purposes upon land posted as private property and providing penalties on page 12 of to-day's calendar, bills on third reading be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, why should this bill be dropped from the calendar?

Mr. ALEXANDER. On March 23, House Bill No. 859, file folio 3473, which was identical with this bill, was defeated in this House, and for that reason I have made the motion to drop this bill from the calendar.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, before I make a motion, I wish to explain to the members of the House that I have spoken to the sponsor of the bill concerning which I intend to make a motion, and he is satisfied that I shall make that motion.

I now move you, Mr. Speaker, that House Bill No. 1696, (Senate Bill No. 552), file folio 4151, entitled:

An Act to promote general safety in the use of motion picture film by regulating the manufacture purchase lease use sale projection exhibition or other disposition of motion picture film of a nitro-cellouse or similarly hazardous base and by removing existing restrictions on the manufacture purchase lease use sale projection exhibition or other disposition of motion picture film of an acetate of cellulose or similarly non-hazardous base and providing for the enforcement of the provisions of this act and penalties for violations of the provisions of this act and providing for the making and the promulgation of administrative rules and regulations in connection therewith and providing certain designated fees required thereunder on page 9 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Elections for the purpose of amendments.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I arise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, just a few minutes ago we had a beautiful example of discourteousness on the part of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Stavitski. On page 3 of today's calendar, there happens to be a compensation bill of which I am the sponsor. It was moved by that gentleman that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Insurance. It seems to me if anything like that is to be done at any time, the sponsor should be consulted. The bill was delayed twenty-four hours in getting here; when it did get here, there were a number of mistakes in the printing, but nevertheless, I feel and I believe all members of this House feel that it is the privilege of the sponsor to move to have that bill dropped from the calendar or recommitted, and I want to say to the members of this House that I resent that kind of treatment, and think it is most ungentlemanly and most discourteous.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. HAAS. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the vote by which the bills that were dropped or recommitted by Mr. Stavitski be reconsidered. Let us drop them decently or send them back.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The bills cannot be reinstated under an omnibus motion of this kind. The motion should designate the number of the bill and the page of the calendar.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman's point of order is well taken. Each individual bill should be acted upon separately.

Mr. EDMONDS. May I ask, Mr. Speaker, for information, can we be informed from the desk as to what bills were droped from the calendar a little while ago on the motion of Mr. Stavitski.

I think there is not an exact clearness as to what bills were covered by those motions.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the bills dropped on motions of Mr. Stavitski.

The numbers of the bills were read by the Clerk as follows:

Page 3, House Bill No. 985, file folio 7081, recommitted to the Committee on Insurance.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Agreeably to order,

NAYS—1.

Ludlow,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, a short time ago this morning a bill introduced in the Senate by Senator Baldwin was dropped from the calendar. I would like to say at this time that Senator Baldwin has been from time to time unusually courteous to every man on the floor of this House. He is Chairman of the Finance Committee in the Senate, and I think that we owe it to him, because of his generous disposition towards us in all bills that go over to the Senate, to return that courteous treatment. I would ask on personal grounds that we reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 1735, (Senate Bill No. 963), file folio 3599, entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred and two three hundred and four three hundred and eleven and one thousand two hundred and one of an act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" increasing the resident hunter's license fee and making appropriations, on page 9 of today's calendar of bills on third reading, was dropped from the calendar this morning.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 122 members, or more than a majority of the House having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HUBER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1287 (Senate Bill No. 475), file folio 1969, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws nine hundred and eighty-six) entitled "An act to fix and regulate the compensation of directors of the poor of poor districts composed of several townships boroughs and cities situate wholly within counties of this Commonwealth not exceeding five hundred thousand population" as amended was defeated on final passage on April 14th, be reconsidered.

Mr. EARLEY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HUBER. Mr. Speaker, this bill, I received from good authority, only applies to the poor directors of Lackawanna County.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I think in all due deference to the gentleman from Lackawanna, the House should also know another fact, that while it is true that this bill at the present time only applies to Lackawanna County, the reason for that, as I understand it, and it is the reason for two or three other counties where the population of the county is between 140,000 and 500,000, is that they have special poor laws. As I understand, all of those counties between 140,000 and 500,000 have special poor laws, excepting Lackawanna County, and that is why this only applies to Lackawanna County. If, however, those special laws any time in the future should happen to be repealed, then this law will apply to all the counties in that class. I am making that statement so you will understand why it only applies to Lackawanna county, because and act of assembly that applies to only one county of that kind would be unconstitutional. I am making that statement so that you will not be misled by this bill.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Delaware?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, yes sir.

Mr. THOMAS. What effect would the poor law code, which is pending in the House at the present time, have on the situation of putting a county in that class?

Mr. ALEXANDER. If that poor law code repeals all special poor laws in the State, it will make all of those counties subject to this bill.

Mr. THOMAS. May I ask one other question? I am not familiar with the poor law practice in the counties of the state. Is a salary of $2,500 a fair salary for the work a poor director does?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I would say $2,500 for poor directors is too much. In other words, in Delaware county, I suppose they have as much work as they have in most of the counties. They have one meeting a week; they have three on the board of directors and the county is districted and each one of this board of directors has a district, so that they look after the poor in their respective districts. Altogether they do not have an average of more than three days a week,—that would be a big average, of the time they are engaged in the office.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 365.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I call up the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 365.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the report.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the report was adopted.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want at this time to express my appreciation for the work done by this House. I want also at the same time to express my appreciation for the treatment which you have afforded me. I have at different times felt that perhaps I was on my feet too often, but from the expressions that I have had from many of the members I believe that I was mistaken on that point. I want to say further that of the four sessions that I have attended this House I can say that we have had no House at any time that has showed more energy, more interest, taking the House as a whole, than this House has. It is true, as it always will be true in a body of two hundred and eight members such as this House contains, that we will often differ on subjects, but there is no higher attainment a man can reach than that in which he will give to his fellowmen the same right which he asks for himself, that is, to do his own thinking and after he has thought to be able to stand on his own feet and express his own real thought, although you may differ, to be able afterwards to shake hands with each other as friends; and I believe that is true with every one of the two hundred and eight members of this House this session.

There has occurred, however, in this session notwithstanding, that I say, that I believe there has been no more conscientious, active House than this has been, there has been things said in the public press that I do not think we should leave go unanswered, and I tell you when I see a man holding high office condemn other who hold just as responsible positions as he does, sworn to the same oath that he has been sworn to, and just as conscientious in carrying out that oath as he is and knowing that that man knowingly and maliciously, for the purpose of gaining a political front or political advantage maligns his fellowmen and makes a bridge of that maligning by which he can carry himself over his own mistakes and his own weaknesses, I think it is the most malicious thing that any man can do, and I want to call your attention to one of the most cowardly and one of the most malicious attacks ever made by any man upon any House or upon any legislative body, and I refer now especially to the contents of a paper which was released by a party—and I need not say his name because you all know him—I refer to that article which appeared in the papers of last Monday. He starts with a number of things which he condemns and finally he says: "The lump sum method of appropriation for private hospitals is beyond all question the best and fairest. Therefore the recommendation for a lump sum was repeated in the present budget. It was disregarded and individual bills for each hospital were introduced instead." I think our experience has been that with the manipulation by this gentleman of different affairs, and especially with our hospitals in this State, it would be unsafe to risk in his hands at this political period of his life a lump sum which he could give to his friends and take away from his enemies, and therefore I think we will all agree that this House in that respect made no mistake whatever, especially taking into consideration the fact—and I will refer to that more specifically later on—taking into consideration the fact that the Appropriations Committees of this House and the Senate set down as received from the Department of Welfare in February of this year the number of free days, free service, the actual cost of the free service in all the hospitals in this Commonwealth, and it was upon that free service, calculated at the rate of $3.00 per day, that these allotments were made by the Appropriation Committees of the House and Senate. I will refer to that later on.

He goes on to say: "These bills as passed show no rule of justice whatever in the way appropriations have been alloted to the different hospitals. Although the official record of actual days of free service rendered in 1923 and 1924 was supplied on request nearly two months ago, the sums fixed by the various hospitals in the bills completely disregards this, the only equitable basis, and the actual distribution made by the legislature is utterly unjust." I have in my hand a tabulation of the allotment to every hospital and if he had taken the pains to examine that as I have he knows that is not only absolutely false but it must be maliciously false because no man with the intelligence that he has, or supposed to have at least, could make a statement of that kind without having in his heart the act of malice. Again I refer to his public statement: "These cases of unjust favoritism are balanced by equally glaring cases of unjust discrimination. Fifty-two hospitals receive less than eighty per cent of their probable earnings, while in one case the amount falls as low as 20.7 per cent. It it obvious that in many cases this discrimination has a political basis. Man after man"—mark you—"Man after man has come to me during this session to tell me that threats against his hospital appropriation have been made as a means of coercing his vote. It is common knowledge in Harrisburg that such efforts as sandbagging. are anything but rare." I want to pause there,—if he refers to the sandbagging on the part of the Executive I have no defense, but if he means the sandbagging on the part of the members of this House, I deny the allegation and I say it is an absolute lie pure and simple. "It is probable also that mere incompetence in the preparation of the figures explains some cases, but whatever the reason, the essential fact is that the needy sick of Pennsylvania are being dealth with in these bills without regard to justice, under a system which makes the relief of their suffering a mere pawn in a political game. The club held over members of the General Assembly by those who have the power to control the allotment of funds to the different private hospitals, and who use it most unjustly, has been and is today one of the most dangerous, corrupting influences in the public life of this State. The threat of cutting off money for the relief of suffering is among the most powerful that can be made, and the results of making it are well known. Understand me clearly. I am not making an argument against the appropriation of money to private hospitals for the relief of the sick. What I am attacking is the shameful and conscienceless use of those appropriations as a political club. No single thing would do more to raise the level of politics in Pennsylvania than to take the allotment of funds to private hospitals absolutely out of the control of politicians (mark you, politicians) and establish it on the only fair and proper basis without regard to locality or politics—on the basis of a lump sum distributed strictly in accordance with actual service and actual need. Justice to these helpless wards of the State cannot be rendered under the bills no in my hands. While I can reduce amounts absurdly in excess of possible needs, I cannot raise amounts just as absurdly below the level of decent care.

It is most unfortunate that these bills were substituted for a single lump sum, under which the distribution could be equitably made on definitely known principles, under which injustice as between one hospital and another would be impossible, and under which every dollar of the sum devoted to private hospitals would actually be used for that purpose—Hospitals which in the fiscal years 1924 gave 25,000 days or more of free treatment to the sick and injured poor are all in great and wealthy cities. So far as can be done within the sums appropriated by the legislature to each hospital their bills have been approved up to the budget limit of $150,000) or for the sum for which they applied."

He goes on and tells how he did it. Now then, let us see how much truth there is in this statement. I have, and I will go over any time with you, the figures and every figure in that statement shows that the statements that he made that there was any politics shown in the Appropriation Committee of the House or the Appropriations Committee of the Senate is an false as any statement that the worst liar that ever lived ever made. It cannot by anything else but malicious because he who would read must learn and a man should read before he makes a statement of this kind against an honorable body such as this body is, and I will place the conscience, the integrity and the straight-living of this House against anybody that is acting in concert on any of these bills, I do not care whether he be the Governor or who he is. He speaks about the big cities. That is true. The two committees took the free days and the free service in these large cities, taking those large hospitals, we believed in those districts, the people in those districts are better able to do a larger amount of charity than those in the little country districts. We did not sit down with the fool idea of 25,000 free beds and days or 50 bed days, and that is all there is to it; we did not put them all in one grand big lump sum and fix it that way, but we took so many free days at $3.00 a day and gave in the poor districts eighty percent of that amount but when we came to these rich cities we took the free severe and multiplied by $3.00 a day and took sixty per cent, thereby requiring the great cities to pay forty per cent charity while the poor districts pay twenty per cent charity.

I want you to take these cuts as handed to you by this Governor of yours, this man who has seen fit to stand up and criticise you for your actions, and I want you to see how much justice, how much equity, how much common sense, I might say, is put into his figures, and let us start in and see. For instance, we start in with the Allegheny General, the Allegheny General had 62,738 free days; their actual outlay for free service was $242,425.00. In 1923 they received $125,000.00. The Appropriation Committee allowed them $170,000.00. The Governor cut them to his mean scale, because they had 25,000 bed days, to $150,000.00. I would like you to keep these figures in your mind because they are very illuminating. The Hahnemann Hospital in Philadelphia, another one of the six large hospitals I have mentioned has 66,643 free days, and the actual outlay in cash for these free days was $273,686.00. We gave them $155.000.00 and he cut them to $150,000.00; so that we have an actual outlay of $242,425.00 and $273,686.00 which is only $30,000.00 more, but they both get the same. That is justice. Next we start in with the Jefferson Medical College Hospital with 94,823 days or 33,000 more free days than the Allegheny General, with $301,847.00 actual expense and they get $150,000.00. That is some more justice. In other words there was almost $100,000.00 more spent by the Jefferson Medical College Hospital than by the Allegheny General but he gave them exactly the same. The next comes one of the most glaring deficits and one of the most glaring—I will be honest and I will say it is a mistake although I don't believe it is—105,760 free days—just think of those figures—the Allegheny General with 62,738 free days as against St. Francis with 105,760 free days, with a total expenditure by the St. Francis $358,634.00 as compared with Allegheny General's $242,425.00, and yet they get the same, $150,000.00; and that spells j-u-s-t-i-c-e the same as the rest of them. Next comes the University of Pennsylvania Hospital, 70,599 free beds, a total of $281,878.00 spent and they get $150,000.00. Now, perhaps that is justice, perhaps that is equity, but I think if it is equity we better change the name and definition of both equity and justice because if that tremenduous difference does not require a difference in the amount paid then I do not know what the words mean. That is the same thing with everyone of the bills over here.

I will tell you another thing. He says that friendship or no friendship, as far as the House is concerned, has made any difference, but these figures don't show it because everyone of these bills which have ben left standing as they were he has either a friend in the Senate or a friend in the House. I will turn again to show you a glaring item. I don't know who is going to be blamed for this, but St. Luke's Homeopathic Hospital in Philadelphia, of which your Honorable Speaker was sponsor,—and those who live in Philadelphia know the great work that hospital is doing——in 1923 they received $27,000.; we allowed them $33,000 this year and the Governor cut them to $20,600.00 or $7,000.00 less than they received in 1923. Some more justice. I am only referring to this to show you that his cuts were made simply like a man with his eyes shut, without taking any consideration whatever. Then when I turn to thirty-four poor hospitals throughout this Commonwealth where they cannot raise enough money hardly to keep free beds going and where free beds are most needed, he has cut those thirty-four hospitals, everyone but four, and he has only left the four standing as they were, and he cut everyone of them to the core. Now he is talking a great deal in the newspapers about our taking the money away from the insane hospitals and from the mental defectives and all that. Yes, he has paraded that to the gallery, he has put it in the papers both ways and every way he can think of, but I want to call your attention to something he has done. We all know that this House, in every mental defective bill that has come before us, knowing as we know that there are from four thousand to six thousand of these poor unfortunates that are out on the public at large, a menace to any community, a menace to their poor selves,—I know that every member of this House, with the feeling that touches their heart more than anything else has touched them, has done everything in his power to give them the limit. We gave Laurelton every dollar she asked because there is a place that is needed, a place that is being well governed, and a place that should have our admiration and support. We gave to her the $500,000.00 for new buildings that she asked for and we gave her her full request for maintenance, and we did that with every insane hospital and every defective institution in this State. I have near my home on institution surpassed by none, and I speak now of the Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble-minded Children that many of you know and many of you in your districts have at the present time some unfortunate that you had the advantage of being able to send to that institution. They have at the present time 540 inmates. A month ago they had 552. They run sometimes as high as 600, but that is the highest they have been able to go because of lack of appropriations. They asked this year for an appropriation of $390,000 at a per capita cost of $325, less than any other institution in this State handling the same character of inmates excepting the Polk Institute for Feeble-minded where it cost $318 per capita, and which is the only one below the Pennsylvania Training School. When Dr. Potter visited the Pennsylvania Training School she saw the books showed there that the actual cost of the Pennsylvania Training School was $350 per capita. She asked them "How is it that your actual cost is $350 per annum per inmate and you are only charging the State $325? Their answer was: "We are giving them credit for our farm products which we are producing here and the difference between the cost we are collecting from our private inmates." Yet when we are talking and we are talking to the public about cutting out mental defectives, depriving them of a place to go to, this appropriation was cut down to $357,500.00 which means that there will be fifty less inmates kept in the Pennsylvania Training School for the next two years than there has been before. Let us talk sense, let us be just with each other. All I ask is common decency and common justice, not only for myself but for my colleagues in this House and that is the only thing that has put me on my feet. It is not to condemn any body for these actions. I will take Glen Mills School. He talks about the poor boy, talks about our cutting down the appropriation for the public schools and he knew at the time that there was no danger of that bill ever failing, he knew as well as he knew anything that every item in that appropriation would be put back in the Senate except perhaps $1,500,000.00 for normal schools and perhaps a certain amount of the retirement fund about which we were after figures at that time. But before I come to that: The Glen Mills Reform School where boys are sent not to be kept in jail, but boys are sent in order that they may be instructed in the English language and in the different trades and in farming, since Governor Pinchot has been Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania he has cut that appropriation so that it has been impossible for them to have instructors in that place and that place today is nothing more or less than a jail for boys. Instructor after instructor had to be left go because they did not have the appropriation to keep them going, and he cut that this year again $50,000.00, and we asked for a deficiency appropriation of $5,760.06, and the fact is that he said there was no deficiency and if he knows anything at all, if he looked into the matter he would find there was a deficiensey and that deficiency occurred in this way. In the last appropriation they cut out of their appropriation—understand, every bill and contract was within their appropriation, but bills amounting to $5,760.06 did not come in until after the rst of June and when these bills were sent in, because it was after the fiscal year, the Auditor General refused to pay them and notwithstanding there is an unapplied appropriation, as the Governor calls it, not a deficiency, that may be the reason he would not approve it, he refused to approve that bill for $5,760.06 for the House of Refuge.

Now let us go back to the school proposition so that we might be fair with him; the two chairmen of the two committees promised him that they would give him this bill at the same time they gave him the hospital bills and he would have received it if it had not been for the stir that he kicked up in the newspapers. There was one or two items there that there was some question about. For instance, the gentleman who came before that committee from the Department of Public Instruction made the statement that the last quarter of the teachers' salary fund did not fall due until August 1927. They said if that is the case then that quarter can be cut out and the Legislature of 1927 can appropriate it. As to the retirement fund which I have explained to you, the first survey was made a short time ago and from the figures that some of us had with the newer arrangement there instead of 5.6 per cent which some of us asked him about, at the rate of 4 per cent a smaller amount per year would carry it out and the amount that they asked for was $4,040,000.00. That amount should have been reduced by $1,165,000.00, which is a little under $3,000,000.00. This bill contains at the present time instead of $4,140,000.00 for the current retirement fund, only $3,000,000.00, but where the deceit was and where the misleading feature is there is included in that appropriation the appropriation of $1,165,000.00 which was a deficit for the last two years or the last biennium; and I find in looking up this that with every department of this Commonwealth when they handed to the budgeteer of this State a statement of their finances everone of them had a deficit, but they were not permitted to put it in as a deficit; they were to put in as future appropriations to pay the deficit out of that appropriation and therefore the committees all along the line were deceived to that extent. Oh yes, he wants to hold out to the people of this state that there was no deficit when there were millions of dollars in deficits in the last two years. Why don't he be fair with himself, fair with the people and above all fair with you gentlemen who have given him far more than he deserves for his departments. He talks about playing politics why, what senseless tom-foolery that is. He who thinks for a moment can see the ridiculous part of that proposition I want to say this: That there never was in this House and Senate two men who worked harder or more conscientiously in the work which they were doing than my esteemed friend "Billy" McCaig from Allegheny, and the gentleman on the other side, Senator Schantz, from Lehigh. There never were two more conscientious servants ever served this Commonwealth than those two. I have been with them at night until one and two o'clock in the morning, I have worked with them in the afternoons, Sunday afternoons and nights—I was doing charity work so excuse me for working on the Sabbath day—but I have sat with them at their desks continually until after this was compiled. My friend, Mr. McCaig—and maybe some of you don't know it,—was almost sent to bed by reason of the overwork which he has had. I want to call your attention to this fact: If those committees had been playing politics I want to ask you this question,—because they are sensible people on both these committees—would not they have given to the school districts every cent, I was going to say every dollar, but every cent asked for and would not they have cut the departments of this Commonwealth and especially the departments that come under the Administrative Code of the Governor, cut them to the core; would not they have done that? That is the way they would have played politics with him if they wanted to play politics. But no, they even went the limit with him and gave him the whole $132,966,866.00 which he asked for, and we take that into consideration with his economy plan that he set up against the extravagant administration of Governor Sproul of 1921 and 1923, which we all talk about and which has been talked about many times since, but when you take into consideration the appropriation for that biennium of $102,160,000,00 it looks like a mere bagatelle alongside of the $132,966,866.00 and when you take that into consideration and compare that also with two years ago he says he paid off a debt—understand, I emphasize he said "that he paid off a debt of $29,000,000.00". Then he received two years ago $29,000,000. if that is correct, he received $29,000,000 more than was necessary for current expenses. Add $29,000,000 to $30,000,000. and you are giving him $60,000,000 today more than necessary in 1923. I am referring to these figures to show you that if there has been any politics played it has played in the corner over on the other side and played at the same time knowing that back home he was endeavoring to blacken the reputation and intergrity of the members of this House. It is for that reason that I take this time of this House and I say this, and I say this for the defense if it is necessary, but I say this in order that we may challenge the remarks as the most damnable remarks ever made by any Executive of this Commonwealth. I again congratulate you for your fine work of this session and, again thanking you, I am through.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McCaig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCAIG. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I have not had time to look at this bill. I have not the other bill which I think I have already marked, and there are one or two questions that I would like to ask. What appropriation has been made to the Eastern Penitentiary in this report?

Mr. McCAIG. That is in a separate bill, and not contained in this report.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Is not there $500,000 still remaining in here?

Mr. McCAIG. Except the $500,000 for a new penitentiary.

Mr. ALEXANDER. How much?

Mr. McCAIG. $500,000 for the use of the commission on page 68, line 13, is the paragraph.

Mr. ALEXANDER. There is also an appropriation in here for $986,000 for the blind institutions, is there not?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That is a lump sum?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. There were also separate bills, which he vetoed, calling for separate sums for these hospitals amounting in the aggregate to $986,000.

Mr. McCAIG. That is true.

Mr. ALEXANDER. All of the school appropriations have been replaced in this bill?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Except what?

Mr. McCAIG. $750,000 for new construction for the normal schools.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In other words, on the request of $1,500,000 for the construction of new normal schools, you allowed $750,000?

Mr. McCAIG. $750,000, that is correct.

Mr. ALEXANDER. The retirement fund, as I have already said, amounts to $4,140,000?

Mr. McCAIG. That is intact.

Mr. ALEXANDER. That includes the deficiency to which I have already referred?

Mr. McCAIG. That is true.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Of $1,165,000?

Mr. McCAIG. Yes, sir.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there are a number of things in here. Of course, we have appropriated as I have said, nearly the full amount which he has asked for his departments. He has given the excuse a number of times that there are not sufficient funds. I believe those sufficient funds could be saved by him, with the proper administration, out of what we have appropriated in this bill. Now, as to the recommendation here by this committee,—and I have all the respect in the world for this committee, I am not condemning them for a minute,—they are allowing in this recommendation $750,000 for normal schools. I have opposed that consistently. I don't want you to understand for a minute, however, that I am opposed to the normal schools. I believe they are one of the best institutions that this Commonwealth has, and I am thankful for those normal schools because most of the education I ever received, I received at the West Chester Normal School, in Chester county. I know the work they are doing for the poor boy. If it had not been for the normal school, by reason of my financial position, I would not have been permitted to get the little education that I do have. Therefore, understand, when I am speaking against this appropriation, I am not speaking against the necessity of giving, but knowing the condition of the normal school buildings throughout this Commonwealth at the present time, and considering, as was said before this Committee, that $1,500,000 will not pay the paint bills on those schools at this time, what will $750,000 do? It is simply giving to them, for the sake of saying, "We gave you something." My idea has been, as provided by a resolution which comes up later on calling for a bond issue of $50,000,000, that not only the normal school buildings, but the schools for mental defectives and the feeble-minded institutions may be built in a way that will be a credit to this Commonwealth, and no waste of money like there has been in the past years.

That brings me to the next proposition of the $500,000 appropriated at this time for the Eastern Penitentiary. I am not opposed, understand, to the Eastern Penitentiary. I am afraid that later on it will be necessary for us to have at least two penitentiaries and perhaps three. New York has five now, but, I am at the present time opposed to the payment of any money for penitentiaries, for sites, or anything else. I will give you my reason. While we were working on these appropriations, questions came up that your chairman and myself could not settle from the evidence we had, so we went and made a personal visit to see for ourselves what was being done. We went out to Rockview. There they have 6,500 acres of land, and for that 6,500 acres of land there has been appropriated since 1911 a sum of money amounting to about two and a half million dollars. There it lay like ruins, simply looks like ruins, no use for it, and there has been recommended by the Welfare Department $205,000. That won't build the chimneys for it, hardly, or permit any use, for the next four years, of those buildings. You have passed a bill here in this House that was sponsored by myself, passed again over in the Senate, and is now in the hands of the Governor, calling for $600,000. This will complete the main cell buildings of that institution. It is an ideal place. The merit men can be taken there, they can be used on the farms, and that farm and that place can be made almost self-supporting. That will accommodate 500 prisoners when that main cell building is finished. I have a letter from the warden of the Western Penitentiary. It says: "In compliance with your request of Saturday, the 4th instant, I am pleased to furnish you with the following facts: The population of Pittsburgh at the present time is 972; the capacity of Pittsburgh at the present time is 1,182. The population of Rockview is 689, the present capacity of Rockview is 725. On Friday, April 3rd, we removed from the Eastern Penitentiary, 110 prisoners. That should very materially relieve their congestion, and within the next year we should be able to remove from that institution approximately 200 more. This, of course, would not take into account that within the next six months, taking into consideration that we get the $600,000, the new cell block will be ready for occupancy. I would be willing to say, as soon as that is ready, we will be able to take as many prisoners as they decide would be required to relieve their congestion. We will have to discharge at Rockview 225 prisoners within the next year and 75 from Pittsburgh, making in all 300. Our probable receipts in that period will be 475. From these figures I have drawn my conclusion of the number of men we will likely be able to take from the Eastern Penitentiary in the next nine months."

So you can see that $600,000 which we have appropriated will not only put in use the results of the two and a half million dollars, but we will make an ideal place for the merit men to go, and we will relieve at the same time the congestion in the Eastern Penitentiary. What I am afraid of is that if this stays here, according to the recommendation of the Welfare Department, which asks for $205,000 for Rockview, and $1,000,000 for the Eastern Penitentiary, it will affect the $600,000 for Rockview, and therefore leave that useless pile of stone standing there, worth at the present time two and a half million dollars, and permit this to go through for the Eastern Penitentiary. That is the reason I am opposed to this $500,000 at the present time, and especially in consideration of the condition of the finances of this State at the present time which I do not believe will warrant it.

Mr. HARER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is not my desire to discuss this measure, but simply to reply to one argument of Mr. Alexander regarding the normal school appropriation. The Conference Committee, in considering this matter, asked the Department of Education to present whatever facts it had with regard to construction work of these normal schools. There had already been presented a report of the commission to study the normal school situation, and in that report it was contemplated to do away with certain normal schools. The committee therefore felt that no capital construction should be undertaken at any of these institutions where there was danger of discontinuance. The only things considered were the absolute and immediate needs for the protection from fire, and the protection of health in those institutions. Considering all those matters, they arrived at this amount of money, which we think will take care of the absolute needs until a further study of the institutions can be made.

With this in view, I ask you at this time to vote for the adoption of this conference report.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1086, (Senate Bill No. 406), entitled:

An Act to validate certain municipal assessments municipal claims and municipal liens in the several boroughs of the Commonwealth providing for the filing of claims therefor and the proceedings for the collection of such assessments and claims

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a bill that was before the House last night, and was passed over because of the bad provision in it, validating liens that had never been filed, and the time for filing of which had long expired. It legislates life into a dead lien, and thereby jeopardizes the title to real estate purchased by innocent purchasers. That was the objection raised to it last night. There have been no amendments made to it, and for that reason I am opposed to the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1548, (Senate Bill No. 966), entitled:

An Act to repeal section nine of an act approved the eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred seventy) entitled "An act creating a Division of Township Highways in the State Highway Department conferring powers and imposing duties upon officers of the State Highway Department requiring certain duties of clerks of the Courts of quarter Sessions and providing penalties"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if anybody in the House is able to explain the provisions of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Is there anyone familiar with the terms of this bill?

Mr. MARSHALL. As I understand this bill, it repeals the Act of Assembly which created a township division in the State Highway Department. I think the township division is rendering a very great service in that department, and personally, I think it is a mistake to dispense with it, if that is the provision of this bill. If it provides otherwise, I would like to know it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill be passed over for the present.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, this bill will be passed over for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1549, (Senate Bill No. 967), as follows:

An Act to further amend section seven hundred twenty-seven of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as amended by providing for the Department of Highways to decentralize to townships of the first class and when so authorized township to collect and retain fees

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section seven hundred and twenty-seven of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred and forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" as amended by an act approved June fourteenth one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and seventy-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 727 No railroad or street railway shall hereafter be constructed upon any township highway nor shall any railroad or street railway crossing nor any gas pipe water pipe electric conduits or other piping be laid upon or in nor shall any telephone telegraph or electric light or power poles or any coal tipples or any other obstructions be erected upon or in any portion of a township highway except under such conditions restrictions and regulations and subject to the payment of such fees for permits as may be prescribed and required by the State Highway Department not exceeding the reasonable cost of issuing the permit and expense of inspecting the work authorized by such permit

upon completion thereof All fees so collected for permits shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be credited to the special fund in the State Treasury into which motor vehicle registration and license fees are now paid and all such permit fees in said fund from time to time are hereby specifically appropriated to the State Highway Department for expenditure for the same purpose and in like manner as that for which the moneys now in said fund may be expended provided that the Department of Highways shall have power to authorize townships of the first class to issue such permits and collect fees therefor as hereinbefore provided in this act such authorization to be for the length of time and subject to the regulations as may be prescribed by the Department of Highways and all fees collected by the township under this authorization shall be paid into township treasury to be used for construction and maintenance of township roads

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in a conference with the sponsor of this bill, he has agreed to amend it. Therefore, I ask that this bill be passed for the present, until I can g my amendment ready.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, this bill wil be passed for the present.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1547, (Senate Bill No. 965), entitled:

An Act to repeal section eleven of an act approved the eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred seventy) entitled "An act creating a Division of Township Highways in the State Highway Department conferring powers and imposing duties upon officers of the State Highway Department requiring certain duties of clerks of the Courts of Quarter Sessions and providing penalties"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BURD P. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I hope that this bill will not pass. It is merely creating a division here in place of a condition which now maintains, that is, a division of township highways in the State Highway Department. The present condition is sufficient for the townships and the townships want the condition to remain as it now maintains. I am sure it will be a great disadvantage to the townships for this bill to pass, and I therefore ask that it be voted down.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that this bill also be passed over. I think that this bill and House Bill No. 966 go together, and if they do, then Mr. Evans is mistaken about it. The law he refers to is repealed by House Bill No. 966, and this bill takes its place. Now, if that is the case, we want to pass this bill over, and I will get the information for you.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, we will pass this bill temporarily.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 947, (Senate Bill No. 271), entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the fifteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws twenty) entitled "An act regulating in criminal trials the cross-examination of a defendant when testifying in his own behalf" by prohibiting the introduction as evidence of certain testimony or records

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILLS ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I wish to inform the House that the bill at the bottom of page 5, House Bill No. 1548, (Senate Bill No. 966), concerning which I made inquiry, does not do what I thought it did, and is intended to correct an ambiguity in the law, and I withdraw my objections. I understand the two following bills, which have also been passed over, are similar bills of that kind, and I would ask that the bill at the bottom of page 5 be taken up at this time.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection then, the Chair will return to the bottom of page 5 and take up these bills, the first being House Bill No. 1548, (Senate Bill No. 966).

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 1548, (Senate Bill No. 966), entitled:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1688, (Senate Bill No. 337), entitled:

An Act concerning poor relief and the creation and government of poor districts and the administration of the same in all counties of the Commonwealth except in counties of the first and second class and revising amending consolidating and changing the law relating thereto

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I should like to inquire if there is anyone in the House who can explain the provisions of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Is there anyone who can explain the provisions of this bill?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I am informed that this is the Poor Code, passed by a commission or recommended by a commission originally appointed by Governor Sproul and continued by act of 1923 by our prior Legislature. For forty-six counties, we now have county poor boards and county almshouses. This is simply a codification of the existing law. It does away with a great many obsolete and other statutes which have no applicability at all. The present city and local poor boards and almshouses in the other counties are continued. The codification which is before you has been recommended by the State Board of Poor Directors, with a membership of over five hundred. There are six or seven smaller counties as to which it is optional, among which are Cameron, Pike, Union, Snyder, Juniata, Sullivan, Wyoming, Armstrong and Fulton. As to those counties, it is optional whether the act shall apply, and for those the county commissioners become the poor board. It makes no change in either Philadelphia or Allegheny counties. It was heard before the Senate Judiciary General Committee, and certain suggestions were made and amendments adopted, and the bill unanimously passed the Senate and is before us at this time.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LUDLOW. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Do I understand that in the county of Cameron it will be optional whether or not the county commissioners will act as overseers of the poor?

Mr. LUDLOW. I am informed that in the counties which I have just named, of which Cameron is one, that it is purely optional whether they shall take advantage of the provisions of the act or not. I do not know, other than the information given to me by the Secretary of that Commission today.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, the explanation of the gentleman from Montgomery is entirely satisfactory in event that this is optional with the county whether or no to accept the provisions of the bill. It is a very long bill, some ninety-five pages, and I was not sure as to that point.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. ALEXANDER. In the first place, this bill affects the salaries of directors of the poor.

Mr. LUDLOW. It affects no salaries at all; it affects no existing salary. It did as originally introduced in the Senate, but was amended so as to take that out.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does this create a Retirement Board?

Mr. LUDLOW. Not to my knowledge.

Mr. ALEXANDER. A retirement feature?

Mr. LUDLOW. Not to my knowledge.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Does this Code repeal the special laws of the poor district of the State?

Mr. LUDLOW. It codifies laws, but does not repeal the special laws which have created existing boards. It simply repeals and codifies the obsolete and otherwise inapplicable laws in forty-six of the counties.

Mr. ALEXANDER. As was said this morning on another bill, a certain bill only affected Northampton county. That was for the reason that the only one of the fourth class counties that did not have a special law was Northampton. How does this affect fourth class counties?

Mr. LUDLOW. I cannot refer to the specific section, but the act before us this morning, which was passed or which was passed over for consideration, related only to poor districts within the counties, but not coterminous with counties, and related only to one county. I cannot answer further than that.

Mr. ALEXANDER. You cannot answer how it affects fourth class counties?

Mr. LUDLOW. Excepting that it maintains the present county poor houses and county almshouses; does not affect that at all.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—168.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, for information, on what bill are we voting?

The SPEAKER. The first bill on top of page 9 of the calendar, Senate Bill No. 1029.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides that we may increase the width of our motor trucks. Personally I think it is a serious mistake. We are already practically crowded off the road with the present width of our trucks. Notwithstanding the fact that a member from the Department was over here this morning reminding us of the fact that New York was permitting trucks six inches broader than ours and that he thought it would be a good plan for us to meet the conditions of New York and allow ours to be increased to ninety-six inches, I want to say to you, while I regret very much, that I am compelled to vote against the bill, I thought it only fair to state to this House my reason for so doing. Personally I cannot vote for the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The Clerk proceeded to call the roll.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I am of the opinion that the members misunderstand this bill. This is a Department measure and provides that the body of the truck may be ninety-six inches in width over all.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. HESS. This requests the equivalent of the law in adjoining states.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, my point or order is that there is nothing in order but the counting of the vote.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, this is simply to make our laws the equivalent of laws in our adjoining States, and I move you Mr. Speaker, that we take another poll of the House, that the roll be called a second time.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that there may have been some misunderstanding amid this confusion, and therefore if there is no objection, he will order the roll call to be taken again.

Mr. NORTH. And we have a perfect right to speak at any time. Mr. Speaker, I have not been with you very long, but my observation has been, according to the rules of this House, that the gentleman is clearly out of order in his speech to the House.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 841, (Senate Bill No. 19), file folio 3637, entitled:

An Act making incurable insanity a cause for divorce and providing procedure in such cases on page 20 of yesterday's calendar, bills on third reading, was defeated, be reconsidered.

Mr. DRINKHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1735, (Senate Bill No. 963), entitled:

An Act to amend sections three hundred and two three hundred and four three hundred and eleven and one thousand two hundred and one of an act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" increasing the resident hunter's license fee and making appropriations

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire if there is somebody in the House who can explain the provisions of this bill?

The SPEAKER. Can anyone explain the provisions of this bill?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware on this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. What for?

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. MOFFATT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the sponsor of this bill, Senator Baldwin, has been a very good friend of this House, and I think it is not fair at the present time to drop this bill. I think if it is going to be defeated, it should be defeated in the proper and orderly way and not dropped from the calendar.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker, this bill involves a lot of money, and I think we should have the privilege of knowing the purposes of the bill and the uses to which this money is going to be put, and that was my purpose in asking somebody to explain the provisions of this bill. I would like to know how much money is to be derived from this increase.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, at the time the gentleman from Monroe asked for someone to explain the bill, the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Bidelspacher, arose and I presume consented to be interrogated on the bill.

Mr. RHODES. Very well, I would like to interrogate him.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I did not intend to be interrogated on this bill. I wanted to say something about it.

Mr. RHODES. May I ask the gentleman from Lycoming how much money will be derived from this increase?

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. I do not know.

Mr. RHODES. Then you may talk about it.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to say something just briefly concerning the provisions of this bill. I agree with our friend from Delaware, Mr. Alexander, that the sponsor of this bill is a good friend of all of us, but I am equally clear that I cannot support this measure for the reason that I heard from the people back home. They do not want the bill. Briefly stated, this bill provides for two sets of resident hunter's licenses. In the first place, it provides on page 2, section 302, that a person paying two dollars and fifty cents to the county treasurer shall be entitled to the license herein designated as a general resident hunters' license. (b) If he pays one dollar and twenty-five cents, he shall be entitled to the license known as a small game hunters' license. Now, the chief objection that has been raised to the bill is this: The small game season comes before the large game season, and when a person takes out a license for small game, there is nothing in here that provides that he is entitled to credit for the small game license of one dollar and fifty cents that he has paid in and if later on, when the big game season comes on he decides to hunt deer for one day, he must, in addition to the one dollar and fifty cents that he has paid for the small game license, pay two dollars and fifty cents for the large game hunter's license. For that reason the sportsmen back home, and for other reasons that I will not stop to enumerate, because you don't care to hear me anyway, I shall vote no on this bill.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I notice there are two bills, and there is some confusion in our minds as to what bill we are voting on. One is the marriage license bill, and the other is the hunters' license bill. If it is the former, I never knew anybody to object to paying a fee, so that I would like to know which bill we are voting on.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. I think I can clear up that situation. The file folio on the calendar is wrong. It should be 3825. The amended bill is practically as the original bill was.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move you that the vote by which House Bill No. 1715, (Senate Bill No. 1066), file folio 3823, entitled:

An Act to amend section five of an act approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet Laws four hundred twenty-nine) entitled "An act relating to the descent and distribution of the real and personal property of persons dying intestate and to provide for the recording and registering of the decrees of the orphans' court in connection therewith and the fees therefor" by providing that a husband living separate and apart from his wife having committed adultery and charged in court therewith of which his plea and sentence on such charge shall be conclusive evidence shall not be permitted to participate in the wife's estate was passed finally a few moments ago be reconsidered.

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appeared to have it.

Whereupon, A division was called for, and 76 members, having voted in the affirmative and 42 in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members, the correct file folio 3823. I want to call your attention to this bill. It is an important bill, and it passed through here awhile ago and nobody paid any attention to it. Here is a bill that provides in the amendment, "or who shall while living separate and apart from his wife have committed adultery and charged in court therewith, of which his plea and sentence on such charge shall be conclusive evidence,"—in other words, no husband who shall have for one year or upwards previous to the death of his wife wilfully neglected or refused to provide for his wife, or shall have for that period or upwards wilfully and maliciously deserted her;—that is the old part of the bill—here is the amendment:—"or who shall, while living separate apart from his wife have committed adultry and charged in court therewith, of which his plea and sentence on such charge shall be conclusive evidence shall have the right to claim any title or interest in her real or personal estate after her decease under the provisions of this act." There are two objections to that. In the first place, it is only a single barrelled gun. It should refer to either party, either the wife or the husband. There is another worse feature than that about it. Suppose while there is a desertion, and while they are living apart the adultery complained of happens, and after the commission of the crime, the offense is condoned, as it is condoned in hundreds of cases, this does not provide for any remedy for the condonation; but even after they have lived together for years after that, they may bring this record up, and still he may be prohibited from claiming any title in her property. The purpose of the bill is good, but the terms of the bill and the way the bill is framed is entirely wrong and it is bad.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1925 — 126th of the General Assembly

Vol. 8. HARRISBURG, PA., THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1925. No. 40.

SENATE

THURSDAY, April 16th, 1925.

The Senate met at 12:15 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor David J. Davis) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Edward S. Ninde, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God: We come to the closing day of the legislative session, and we would thank Thee that on the whole so good a record has been made. Men are human; they do not always see eye to eye; there are bound to be honest differences of judgment; but we are glad that at no time has the harmony of the Senate been seriously disturbed. No doubt some legislative blunders have been made, but we pray Thee to overrule them so that no permanent harm shall result. We are grateful to Thee for the large amount of fine, constructive work that has been done. Abundantly bless these Senators. For many long weeks they have toiled faithfully. Reward them as Thou alone art able to do so. Be with our Governor and the Lieutenant-Governor and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Bless the Secretary and all who in any way are associated with this body. Watch over the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; bless our Country and the whole World. Life is so uncertain that we cannot hope to meet again just as we are met at this time. But wherever we may be, continue to watch over us. Direct our steps day by day. Keep us in Thy love and favor. And when life on earth shall end, may we find a place in Thine eternal Kingdom. We ask it in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when on motion of Mrs. VARE, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal approved.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to explain this bill to the Senate.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, members of the Senate, this bill takes the form of an amendment to the automobile code. It was passed by the House and afterwards amended in the Roads Committee of the Senate after a conference of the representatives of Philadelphia County.

The extent to which the bill goes is this: it provides that there shall be returned to the city of Philadelphia the license fees received from omnibuses or motor-busses that run exclusively within the City of Philadelphia on rates as laid down by the Public Service Commission.

In other words, these omnibuses do not go outside of the City of Philadelphia. The bill provides that those license fees shall be returned to the City of Philadelphia for a period of two years. At the end of that time it is the intention of the representatives from Philadelphia, and if it is agreed to by some of the rest of us, that those motor busses shall be taken entirely out of the class of automobiles or motor vehicles for the reason that they practically take the place of trolley cars that damage the streets in the City of Philadelphia, and we feel that it is only fair that the licenses received from them should be returned to the city. At the next session of the legislature it is proposed to offer an amendment to the law and take them away from the state license bureau entirely and let them be licensed by the city of Philadelphia, as the trolley cars themselves are now licensed.

In a number of instances, I am told in the City of Philadelphia, the trolley companies propose to tear up the tracks and run these busses instead of trolley cars. If the City of Philadelphia is entitled to the fees of trolley cars as they now are if they get any, I see no reason why they should not be entitled to the fees received from these motor-busses.

I would say to the members of the Senate that I held this bill in the Roads Committee for some time, until we could have a full and fair understanding about it. I viewed it at first as trying to break down the motor license fund, which motor-busses in the country are so anxious of guarding, and I feel that this bill does not do that, it applies only to counties of the first class and applies only to motor-busses that run exclusively within the County, and that is the only place in the State that the City and County are coextensive. I feel that there is no harm in the bill, it is just and equitable and the amendments were agreed to after a prolonged conference by the representatives of the city and the Conference Committee of this Senate that had under consideration another, somewhat similar, bill. I shall be very glad to answer any further questions.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I do not object to the bill at all. I think that the grounds for the thing are well taken. I do think that Allegheny County should have been included, counties of the second class. I think certainly the same conditions exist in Allegheny County. I was counting up to-night, as well as I could remember, and I counted nine in Allegheny County in addition to a lot of other busses that could be brought under this general head,

I mean lines of busses, and I think Allegheny County, in all fairness, should have been included. The Senator from Bucks, and others who have been in Allegheny County, know that if Pittsburgh has its real population credited to it it would have practically, as I recall, about a million and a half, that is right around in a solid bunch. I may be a little high on that, but it is around that number. We have seventy-two boroughs and fifty-four townships built up solid around the City of Pittsburgh, but as it now stands all those boroughs in the City of Pittsburgh, while they are one so far as any stranger would know, yet they have different alderman and different officers and I think in all fairness Allegheny County should have been included in this bill.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would point out that if those busses run out of the City of Pittsburgh they could not have been included in this bill; if they do run exclusively in the City of Pittsburgh they probably should have been included in the bill and I make that explanation for the reason that Philadelphia County does get money from the state license fund, whereas the City of Pittsburgh does not get money from that fund, and as long as the busses of which the Senator speaks run outside the city limits there is no reason for exempting them or returning that money to Allegheny County. If the busses run exclusively in the City of Pittsburgh, which gets no part of the license funds, his point is well taken, otherwise not.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, why not postpone the bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, before this motion is put, if it is made, you are killing the bill just because of the fact that the City of Pittsburgh does not get what it wants at this time. It is late in the day and it is hardly fair that we should be deprived of what we are justly entitled to. It is unfortunate that the City of Pittsburgh is not getting what is coming to them, but it is not a fair proposition so far as we are concerned. We should not be punished by not getting what justly belongs to us and I want to say to the members here, if you stop to think—I do not know the figures, but you get about sixty-five percent, at least, of all your automobile funds from the City of Philadelphia and we get no return from it. Now you ought to be fair and give us a little especially when we are entitled to it. Senator Barr, who I know is fair-minded, should not impose on us because possibly he or some of the other Pittsburgh men overlooked this and we should not be punished for their mistakes.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. SALUS, presumes when he gives the reason for wanting to put it over. I want to say to you we have not had time to look at this bill. It has not been any mistake of ours. We have not had an opportunity to examine the bill, there has not been any meeting of the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, we have not had any chance to do anything with it. I cannot see that it is going to do any harm to have it postponed.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, whether there are any busses in the City of Pittsburgh that do not go outside of the city limits.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, yes, we have several of them.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, what do the fees of those busses amount to per annum?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would not know, I do not know much about this bill, we have not had any opportunity to examine it. I want to repeat that this bill has been put on the calendar to-night and there has not been much chance, as you have not called any meeting of the Committee on Public Roads and Highways, to give us an opportunity to study it and make any amendments that we may want to make to take care of Pittsburgh.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as I understand the matter there are possibly very few of these busses in any city except Philadelphia, and this matter was considered by a conference committee that had charge of a similar bill just to-day. We had no chance to call a meeting of the Road Committee and I certainly hope, if the Senators insist upon a motion to postpone, that it will not prevail in this Senate, out of fairness to the city of Philadelphia, which I do not represent.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this bill is only for a perior of two years and while Pittsburg has but one buss route within its own city limits, it operates about six busses. Now, as I understand this bill, it is a substitute for trolley lines in the outlying districts in the city of Philadelphia, travelling entirely over city streets paved and kept up by the city of Philadelphia. Senator Barr's position would be to take in the whole county. There are no buss lines outside of the county, they are what is known as jitney lines, quite a number, I would say possibly twelve jitney lines outside of the city of Pittsburgh. The amount of revenue that would be derived by Pittsburgh from these particular lines would amount to twelve hundred and fifty dollars if we entered into the proposition. Therefore this is put on trial for a period of two years. If then continued, or extended, Allegheny County, or the city of Pittsburgh, could enter in, and I am standing here to say that it did enter it. This is a trial within the city of Philadelphia over its own highways. As I have said before, we have but one buss line running about six busses in the city of Pittsburgh, so that I feel it is a fair proposition for trial and after it is tried out, if it works well in Philadelphia, I think Pittsburgh is able to take care of itself two years hence.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I participated in the conference that had this bill under consideration and I want to say that it involves a principle of which I as a member of the Senate could not agree to, as a general proposition. I held out against it because it may be the opening of the door to the Division of the Automobile License Fund, which we must jealously guard, and I absolutely refused to agree to it until we decided for the time to limit this proposition for this biennium, and to give the parties interested, in the next session of the legislature, an opportunity to take the busses, as they told us they are substitutes for trolley lines in the city of Philadelphia, to take those out of the control of the Highway Department and put those under the control of the city of Philadelphia, the same as trolley lines are under their control; and with that idea I agree to the proposition.

I just predicted that this very thing would happen, that Pittsburgh would come in and then Allentown and then Scranton and every other city. They may not be exactly busses but they are jitneys and they are taxi cabs that run exclusively in cities, but I did agree to this proposition to limit it to two years and if in the next session of the legislature something like that could be evolved allright, but as a permanent proposition I shall certainly oppose it.

I have no objection to passing this bill in this form, but if it is to be the opening of the door to the division of this Automobile License Fund, just as I predicted, Pittsburgh and everybody coming in, I hope the legislature will not yield to any proposition of that kind now or in two years hence. I am in favor of passing the bill in the way it is written now, because I agreed to that yesterday.

Let me suggest that if the bill is postponed now it can be called up later in the day, it does not mean that if we postpone the bill now that absolutely kills it, because we have a long day ahead of us and we can call this bill any time during the day.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, why not have the bill go over in its order? Of course, no harm can be done by postponing.

The PRESIDENT. If the Senate decides to postpone action on the bill it is only postponing it for the present, and, as the Senator from Lehigh suggested, it can be taken up at any time later in the session, at four o'clock this afternoon or at six, possibly something like that.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I move that the question together with the further consideration of the bill, be postponed for the present.

Mr. GRISWOLD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, the bill, in my judgment, is a bill that will very seriously embarress the officers engaged in protecting the public of the State of Pennsylvania, both the State Police and the Department of Public Safety in the city of Philadelphia and in the larger cities. The bill provides that the police officers must immediately take the culprit before the nearest justice of the peace. Now it is a matter of common knowledge that in many cases where criminals have banded together and only one of the number has been captured, it is a matter of very serious consequence to the police officers to hold one of the prisoners in custody until the rest have been captured. The word immediately means that instantly, of course, you are obliged to take a desperate criminal before the nearest justice of the peace and give him a hearing.

Now I presume, of course, that this is another bill aimed to protect bootleggers in Pennsylvania. I am frank to say to the members of this Assembly, and I say it now with all the emphasis that I can command, that this legislature, in my judgment, is very seriously going to regret, and the Republican party will regret before very long, that this session has devoted itself not to an effort to strengthen the hands of the law in the administration of justice, and particularly the enforcement act, which we passed last session, but we have devoted our time to sniping at it in various ways in an effort to bring it down. This is another incident of an effort to make it difficult to apprehend criminals who ought to be apprehended.

This bill ought to be beaten. The Republican party in days to come will be very seriously confronted with the situation growing out of the death of thousands of people from bootleg liquor. I say the party will be very seriously questioned by the Democratic Party, and by all good citizens, as to whether or not its efforts have been directed to upholding the law, or whether we have been directing our efforts to helping to tear down the law. This bill ought to be defeated.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, it is very peculiar to me that every bill that is on the calendar during this whole session intended to protect the rights of the people is immediately interpreted as a bootlegging bill. I will give you an illustration of the purpose of this bill: In the first place, arresting people without warrant in Pennsylvania ought to be jealously guarded and the practice ought not to be extended. This bill does nothing at all except it says where an arrest is made without a warrant the person arrested is entitled to be taken before the nearest justice-of-the-peace or peace officer, and his constitutional rights given to him to enter bail for a hearing. That is all this bill will do.

I will give you an illustration of what this bill will prevent: Within the last year the State Poliice went down to Hereford Township, in Berks County, which is one of the remote townships of Berks County, the County is very large;—they went down to Berks County to a second hand automobile dealer, they went through his stock and they found that the titles to the automobiles were not all exactly according to law. They arrested that dealer. He asked to be taken before a justice of that township to enter bail for his appearance whenever he was wanted. The State Police denied that right and they said they could not do it, that he had to go along to Reading, and they railroaded him up to Reading where he had no friends, and was not known and they locked him up and the man could help himself as best he could to get in contact with his friends, way down in Hereford Township, Senator Norton knows better than I do where that is, and there they locked him up. I have no objection that the State Police went there and arrested this second hand dealer, who had nothing at all to do with bootlegging, but they should have given that man his constitutional right and should have taken him before the nearest justice of the peace and given him a right to secure bail for his appearance whenever or wherever wanted.

Those are cases that this bill is intended to correct and it has absolutely nothing to do with bootlegging, unless they had arrested this same man for violating the liquor law the principle would have been the same, that the man should have been taken before the nearest justice-of-the-peace and given the right to enter bail, if he could furnish bail, for his appearance at a hearing, or for Court, according to law.

Now, any man that objects to that objects to guaranteeing to the citizens of Pennsylvania their proper and constitutional right to which they should be and are entitled, and I say this bill is not aimed at arresting bootleggers or anything of the kind, but to protecting the people in their constitutional right and it should be passed.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, the Senator from Lehigh, Mr. Schantz, has only partly stated the provisions of this bill. This bill does not say that you shall take the person arrested before the nearest justice-of-the-peace, nor for bail, but the complaint is made against them; and leaving the bootlegging provisions out of it altogether, I want to ask any member of this Senate if they think it fair to take a man who was arrested before the nearest justice-of-the-peace and make an information against him if that justice-of-the-peace happened to be the brother of the defendent? I think it is a very bad law and should be defeated.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, the thing I have in mind in regard to this bill is the effort now made in the city of Philadelphia to break up banditry. We have cases in the city of Philadelphia where men in an automobile four or five of them, attack people on the public highway. Under this bill if you catch one of these bandits you have to immediately take him before the nearest justice-of-the-peace, without waiting until you have caught the others. This bill will seriously embarrass, if it passes, Director Butler in his efforts to break up banditry, and will embarrass every peace officer in this Commonwealth. This bill has no merit in it and it ought to be defeated.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, that is all guarded in this bill. This bill makes explicit provisions for that very thing. It makes this proviso: "That in cities and boroughs where police courts are held the person arrested may be taken to a police court for said complaint or information." It does not mean anything at all like the Senator said and the word immediately is not there at all. "Provided, however, that in cities and boroughs where police courts are held the person arrested may be taken to a police court for said complaint or information."

The bill provides "that it shall be the duty of every officer who makes an arrest without a warrant to immediately take the person arrested before a justice-of-the-peace, or similar officer nearest to the point of arrest, by public highway and then and there make compaint or information charging the said person arrested with a violation of law for which said person has been arrested", and then the proviso, and I do not see how anybody can object to that.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I hope my good friend, the Senator from Lehigh, has no desire to create an impression in the minds of the members of this body that a reading of the bill would not create. The bill specifically says that it shall be the duty of every officer who makes an arrest without a warrant to immediately,—and the immediately is in italics, take the person arrested before a justice-of-the-peace or similar officer. It is true that it goes on down and says that in cities and boroughs where police courts are held the person arrested may be taken to a police court, but that does not change the word immediately. It means that in the city of Philadelphia if one of four bandits are captured before the capture of the other three, you have to take the first man immediately before a justice of the peace. That is embarrassing to the peace officers and the bill ought not to be passed.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, in the cities where they have police courts, and they have them in counties or cities—the magistrates are in the police court in day time, and only day time. If you arrest a criminal in the night time I would like to know how you could immediately make a complaint if the magistrate is not there? The sergeant cannot make a complaint.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Montgomery whether he would like to convey the impression to this Senate that if there are four bandits and the police of Philadelphia arrest one of them, whether they take that one along and keep that one with them until they found and arrested the other three or whether they do not take him immdiately down to the City Hall and pen him up? They do not lug that one all over the city and state until they have the other three, they take the one down to the police headquarters and lock him up.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President, I could not make a better speech in favor of my proposition than that just hade by the Senator from Lehigh. Certainly they do not, but they take him down to City Hall and lock him up until they are ready to give him a hearing. Under this bill you have to take one man out of the whole lot before a city magistrate and give him a hearing when you do not want to disclose your case.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, this bill, to my mind, is a bill that is intended, or the force of it rather will be to protect the criminals. Why do we throw so many safeguards around the criminal? Why do we not try to prevent crime and permit the law officers to take care of their duties. If they violate the law while on duty the law officers ought to be punished, but we ought to get away from the idea of throwing safeguards around the criminals. Let us defeat this bill.

And the question, recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Mr. STEELE. Mr. President, this bill I believe provides that the County Commissioners may pay out without advertising for bids, in the repairing, building or rebuilding of bridges without advertising for bids one thousand dollars, for the repair building or rebuilding of any bridge or bridges. I simply speak of this and call attention of the Senators to the effect of the bill that we may decide whether it is wise to authorize expenditures of this character without advertising for bids.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1356, (House Bill No. 1371), on third reading postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of article two of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth."

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, in view of the fact that this bill has in its title "An act for the better government of cities of the first class" and in italics "no person shall be eligible to hold the office of Director of Public Safety appointed by the Mayor except such person shall be prior to his appointment an actual bona fide resident of said city,"—I want to ask whether or not this bill is aimed at General Butler, who has done so much to clean up the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. SALUS. I would not think that that is so. I do not think that it is aimed at anybody, at least my information on the subject is that it is not aimed at anybody. However, if the Senator, or anybody else in this Chamber, thinks it is, or that it is a bill that ought to be beaten, I am perfectly satisfied to have it defeated. We have no great anxiety on the question at all. The author of this bill was of the opinion that the city of Philadelphia, with two million inhabitants, ought to have a class of people in it who are real residents, bona fide residents, to fill any office that may be desired in our city government. I think the author is a real Philadelphian and has that much conceit, and if any of you Senators here think that it is aimed at General Butler, but have that thought in your minds I will ask you to vote "no" on the bill.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, further whether or not automatically it would discharge General Butler from his present position if passed and signed by the Governor.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, in order that there may be no argument on the question I move that this bill be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. PHIPPS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution were twice read, as follows:

Amend section 2, line 8, by striking out the word "adult"; also line 9, by inserting after the word "county" the words "and over twenty-one years of age"; also section 3, page 4, line 1, by inserting after the word "service" the following: "If any judge who is a member of the jury board fails to furnish his proportionate share of qualified jurors by October tenth the other judges on said board shall make up the deficiency and if any jury commissioner on the jury board fails to furnish his proportionate share of jurors by October tenth the other jury commissioner shall make up the deficiency"; also section 5, page 7, line 16, by striking out the words "jury board" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "county"; also section 8, page 9, line 24, by striking out the word "manner" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "number".

On the question

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, there seems to be some misunderstanding about the amendments that have been submitted to this Senate regarding the jury bill, and I should like to have an opportunity to see what these amendments are,—not have it rushed through the Senate without having a chance to see what they are. Allegheny has been particularly anxious to have a jury bill, and so is Lackawanna. I am willing to give the other fellow the same chance and justice that we ask. I personally would like to know what is in those amendments before they are forced on the Senate.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, is this the bill that Senator Woodward sponsored?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair informs the Senator from York, Mr. Lanius, that it is the bill sponsored by Senator Woodward.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. President, I understand that the friends of the bill are perfectly satisfied with these amendments.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, this bill affects third class counties only. The sponsor of the bill, Senator Woodward, comes from a first-class county, and he introduced this bill by request. I ask, in fairness, to non-concur in the House amendments and look over the bill.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I have been informed that these amendments are only corrections of typographical errors. Is that so?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has no knowledge of the amendment. The amendments will be read for the information of the Senate.

The amendments were read by the Clerk.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I am informed that the amendments that have been made in the House on this bill satisfy the courts of Lackawanna County, that they satisfy the author of the bill and are entirely satisfactory to the people behind this measure who have worked so hard in every way, to put it across, and I am making the battle for these particular amendments inserted in the House only out of a sense of justice. I know what we have gone through in Allegheny County, and I know what we have had to swallow. I know that we have not had, in Allegheny County, anything like what we ought to have had and we did not have a square deal; and I would like to have this Senate give the people behind this jury bill a square deal. I understand that the amendments made in the House are satisfactory to all concerned in Lackawanna County who have worked so hard to put this bill across.

Mr. LANIUS. I would like to inform the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, that I know that the Court of Lackawanna County is satisfied with these amendments.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, is this Senate satisfying the courts of Lackawanna County or satisfying the Senate of Pensylvania? We want to read these amendments out and I am asking the Senate to vote to non-concur and give us the square deal that the Senator from Allegheny speaks so much about.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, may I ask the Chair to state specifically and clearly to the Senate how a Senator should vote in order that the people of Lackawanna County may get these amendments as put in by the House?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, the motion as stated affirmatively is to non-concur, that would throw out the amendments.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will state it as the Chair understands it. The question before the Senate is on the motion that the Senate do non-concur in the amendments made by the House. If you vote "aye" you vote in favor of the motion, which is that the Senate does not concur in the amendments of the House.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, something has been said to the effect that this bill satisfied the courts in Lackawanna County. I want to tell this Senate that this bill does satisfy the people in Lackawanna County, but that the bill this Senate passed and which was endorsed by the House is the bill the people of Lackawanna County are demanding. This is not the bill the people of Lackawanna want. This bill has been gotten through by propaganda only. The bill this Senate passed this week is the bill the people of Lackawanna County have asked us to pass. It has the endorsement of every newspaper in Lackawanna County except one; it has the endorsement of the bar association of Lackawanna County, personally to me; and yet a man from Allegheny County says the people of Lackawanna County want this bill. I say they do not want this bill as it is written at the present time and I ask the Senate to non-concur in these amendments and give us a square deal.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, there is nothing in my statement about the people of Lackawanna County. I stated that the courts were satisfied with the bill amended, and they are the people who know best what they want and need. If the Senators were so desirous of increasing the salaries of the judges because of their peculiar knowledge, let the Senators be consistent.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I am glad the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, is so well acquainted with what the courts want, but I say the people do not want it. This amended bill puts into the hands of the Court the entire proposition and ignoring the sheriff and the jury commissioners. Three judges can outvote the sheriff and commissioners, and it eliminates the sheriff entirely from this bill. I want reform legislation to correct evil in Lackawanna County, and to have this bill passed without amendment in both the House and Senate. I want a square deal, and ask again that the Senate nonconcur in those amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 690.

To the Honorable, the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: The Committee of Conference to which was referred the differences existing between the two houses on House Bill No. 690, entitled: "An act fixing the salaries of the County Commissioners County Controller recorder of deeds and Clerk of Courts in counties of the third class" respectfully beg leave to submit the following amended bill as our report

P. F. JOYCE,
ALBERT DAVIS,
Committee on the part of the Senate.

W. EDWIN HUBER,
RAYMOND S. DAVIS,
PAUL K. McCORMICK,
Committee on the part of the House of Representatives.

An Act fixing the salaries of the county commissioners county controller recorder of deeds and clerk of courts in counties of the third class

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That the salary of each member of the board of county commissioners the county controller and recorder of deeds and the clerk of courts in counties of the third class shall be six thousand dollars per annum

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendment?

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, this bill provides for a raise in salary, in third-class counties, of the county commissioners, county controller, recorder of deeds and clerks of the courts, the raise being 50 per cent of the salary they are now receiving. This bill was amended in the Senate and the salary was made $5,000 and the bill passed here without a dissenting vote. It went back to the House, and the House placed it back as it originally passed; and I want to say, as a lawyer, and with the experience I have had with the various offices, that a salary of $6,000 is a raise beyond any reason. A raise of 25 per cent to my mind, would have met all the extingencies of the case.

And I want to say, further, so far as Westmoreland County is concerned, that under the present salary we have good officials as could be gotten if you made it $10,000 a year. And further, I consider that the question of the officers themselves is not the only question we should consider in passing upon these bills. I think that the taxpayers who sent us here to legislate do not send us here for the purpose of raising salaries in jumps like this. No business concern of any kind that I have ever heard of would start to raise salaries on a 50 per cent basis, as this is being done; and I say without fear of successful contradiction that the increase of salary will not give any better officials than we have now. And I would, therefore, ask this Senate to defeat this bill. It is not fair to the taxpayers.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I have the honor to represent a third-class county, which this bill affects. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Kunkle, has stated that it is a 50 per cent increase. I would like to tell the Senator from Westmoreland that there is about 300 per cent increase in the cost of living; and, furthermore, that the county commissioners spend the people's money to the extent of $2,000,000 a year. If the men who spend $2,000,000 a year are not worth $6,000 they are not worth anything. There is no secret about it. We know that a man to run for county commissioner in a county like Lackawanna County must spend some of that salary; and I think it is only fair that the county commissioners who hold the responsible positions they do hold should receive more than $4,000 a year.

This bill has the endorsement of the Senators and Representatives of the three counties with the exception of the Senator from Westmoreland. The House members from Westmoreland County endorse this bill. This bill was sponsored by a member from Luzerne County; the bill passed the House, fixing the salary at $6,000; it was amended in this Senate, to make the salary $5,000; the House did not agree to it, and they asked for a conference committee. The conference committee was five to one, from the respective third-class counties, in favor of the $6,000 salary. I ask the Senate to vote for it.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I want to correct a statement made by the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Davis. While I think the records show that a number of the members of the House voted for the bill as it was originally passed, yet I want to say to you that as i understand the sentiment of the six members of the House on this question probably two would be for this bill as amended, but I want to say to you that the other four would be against it. So it is not a proposition on which Westmoreland County is unanimous. And I would ask, therefore—this being a motion that the Chair state just how to vote on this proposition, so there is no misunderstanding.

The PRESIDENT. The question is upon the adoption of the report of the conference committee: Vote "Aye" for concurrence; "No" for non-concurrence.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I ask the Senators to vote "No".

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 1374, (House Bill No. 1403), on third reading, postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to prevent unfair discrimination against Pennsylvania manufacturers by making it unlawful for any municipality to levy license taxes or fees against such manufacturers that are not levied against nonresident manufacturers

Mr. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, since this bill was under consideration a few minutes ago I have had the bill explained to me, and I will be very glad to give the Senate the benefit of what I have learned about the bill.

As I understand the law at present, by the decisions of the Supreme Court, where goods are manufactured in another State and are sent into this State to be sold from door to door, the local municipalities cannot place any tax upon those sales. This bill is intended to place the sale of those goods by manufacturers within the State of Pennsylvania on the same basis upon which the manufacturers without the State of Pennsylvania are now placed.

It seems to be a perfectly fair proposition that the residents of this State should have an equal chance to compete with manufacturers living outside of the State. As the law stands today, manufacturers residing outside of the State have the advantage over the manufacturers residing within the State, and this bill is to correct that inequality.

Mr. KUNKLE. Mr. President, I desire to say just a word in regard to this bill. I think this bill will work an injustice by taking self-government from the cities. If the cities do not undertake to protect their own dealers and manufacturers, it is hardly, to my mind, a proper thing to come to the legislature and tell us that we must take care of their people. So that I firmly believe that the principle of self-government in cities and boroughs ought to prevail, and that that government should take care of just a case as this.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO THE HONORABLE HORACE W. SCHANTZ.

Mr. EYRE. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate—Lady and Gentlemen of the Senate, an honor has been placed upon me by one of the most generous men of the Senate of Pennsylvania, who should have had this honor himself—the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix, who has asked me to act for him in this matter.

I have before me in my office a placard that I read many times a day, and the placard says that when the angel with the scroll comes to write against your name, he writes not whether you won or lost but how you played the game. I have been inspired by the thought that the text I quote is especially applicable to the member of the Senate who has had the Chair of the Committee on Appropriations and administered his office so faithfully for the last two terms of this Legislature.

I had the honor two years ago to place him at the head of that Committee, when I presided over this body. I found that I had made no mistake; that he had served the State of Pennsylvania faithfully, and did honor to the Senate of Pennsylvania in his handling of that Committee on appropriations. This year he has given renewed energy and effort to that Committee on Appropriations, and he has handled the affairs of the committee in a way that has brought him the esteem and confidence and good fellowship of every member of this body.

Therefore, the Committee on Appropriations felt it consistent for them to give to him some token of appreciation and friendship, and they have secured for him the clock which stands at the wall, and want him to accept that as a token of the absolute love, friendship and confidence of the members of the Committee on Appropriations; and they hope that every time the clock chimes he will know that he is thought of with affection by the membership of the committee, and that every tick will remind him of the esteem and good fellowship that is held for him by the Committee on Appropriations.

He has won the esteem and the confidence of every man and woman of this body. We have our differences, of course, in all matters that are appertaining to legislation, but in Senator Schantz we have always found a generous foe. He always fights in the open, and fights with vigor for those measures he is interested in; and we admire the manner in which he has handled all these matters. When the contest is over, whether he wins or loses, his hand of fellowship is extended to every member of this body, and he is willing to do them a good turn, without any selfishness or bearing any malice toward any man or woman with whom he comes in contact.

Therefore, Senator Schantz, my prediction is that the people of Lehigh County would make a great mistake in changing their representation in this body; and I have the belief that you will go higher, in the history of this State, than the position you now occupy. Whether it be in the governorship or in the Halls of Congress in Washington or on the Judiciary you will do credit to the people of your own home town, and the goodwill and fellowship of this body will follow you wherever it may extend.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, Senator Eyre and members of the Senate. Words fail me at this time to properly respond to the flattering and, as I cannot help feel, unjustified words spoken to me by my good friend from Chester, Senator Eyre.

Whether we agree or disagree I do, at all times, the things I feel should be done. I felt myself greatly obligated, in the session of 1923, when Senator Eyre, then President Pro Tempore of the Senate, appointed me Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations. And I felt equally obligated to the genial President Pro Tempore of the Senate of the session of 1925 when he reappointed me.

I started out in the work of this session with a definite, fixed and firm program; and I stood for that and I tried to carry that out. I want to say that I thoroughly appreciate all the kindnesses, all the consideration, cooperation and support that I received from every member of the Senate. We know what it means to appropriate millions of dollars of the public funds of the State, and I know what it means to every member of this body and of the General Assembly to acquire and to receive appropriations that he feels are essential and necessary for the institutions and the things in his district in which he is interested.

I accept this gift with a great deal of satisfaction. That clock, to me, means much. It teaches many lessons as it stands there and I look at it—straight and upright and erect. So, I hope—if I continue in public positions in the future—my public career may be. I will try to gauge my services so that they will be straight and upright and erect, as that clock stands before us this morning— standing squarely for law and order and government by majority. As long as that clock shall function properly and be obedient to the hand that regulates it and shall register accurate time I will assure every member of this General Assembly that it will be standard time that is recorded on that timepiece.

I cannot help but think, for it reminds me of the fact, that time and tide wait for no man; and that it is essential that we have right time, and that we move in the proper spheres of life and perform our duties as we believe they ought to be performed.

I see up there, on that clock, the moon; and when I think of its various phases I hope that for this Senate there may never be any half moon, nor any last quarter, but I hope that this Senate will always be full—represent the moon in its full phase. And, as the moon is that heavenly body which causes light by night, and which has such power and magnetism and force that even the tide ebbs and flows in its wake, so I hope that the Senate of Pennsylvania will stand for the traditions of the past and the constitutional perogatives vested in it; that all other bodies will revolve around it, and that we will stand among the legislative bodies of the country, and of the State, with the same influence and the same magnetism and the same power as the moon that I see depicted on the face of that clock.

Every Sunday morning, when I shall hear those cathedral chimes peal out their beautiful strains, I will send up for every member of this body a silent petition that he may remember the Sabbath Day and keep it holy, and that each one will then wend his way to his proper place of worship, and will observe the Sabbath according to the lessons and the ideals that those cathedral chimes will bring to me every Sunday morning.

Fellow Senators, I accept this gift with a great deal of satisfaction. It will always bring back to my mind the pleasant memories, splendid associations and delightful acquaintanceship that I have had with all of you; and I trust, whether I shall be back in 1927 or not, that all of you, members of the Senate, will be here to continue the good work in which you are now engaged. I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO THE HONORABLE SAMUEL W. SALUS.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, Senator Salus and Members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, at this closing season it becomes our pleasure and privilege to give remembrances to some of the most important committee chairmen of the Senate. Among those most important committees is the law committee of this body, the Committees on Judiciary General. That is the open committee of this Senate. That is the committee where each and every bill coming before it is considered and discussed by the lawyers of the Senate.

That is as it should be, both for the people of Pennsylvania and for the Senators themselves. I have been a member of that committee for eighteen years, and I sometimes wonder whether I learned more in the law school or more in the Committee on Judiciary General. That is the care with which bills are considered in that committee.

During the present session we have had, as the chairman of that committee, a lawyer of eminence, of character and ability. He has conducted the chairmanship of that committee to the satisfaction of not only the members of that committee and the members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, but also to the satisfaction of all the people of the Commonwealth who had business before that committee.

It is the wish of the members of that committee that I, as their spokesman, should present to Senator Salus something that he may take away with him and keep as a keepsake, something by which to remember the session of 1925, when he was chairman of that committee.

Of course, we were at a loss to know what to give to Senator Salus, so I took the matter up with his partner at home, and she has chosen the gift; so that, if it is not satisfactory to him I hope he will not blame us for its selection, as the selection was made by Mrs. Salus.

At the last session of the Legislature there were a number of the members of this Senate who stood up before us and told us they were singing their Swan Song. I am not going to do that today, although it is doubtful whether I shall return. Last session some of those who stood up and sang that Swan Song did come back. Some who tried to come back did not.

And now, Senator Salus, it becomes my pleasure and privilege to present you with this beautiful watch. I trust you will take it and use it and keep it, and after you are through with it give it to those whom you love dearly. I will say there are no restrictions on this watch; you may carry that and have it give standard time or daylight time— long as you do not expose it to public view.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of the Senate: I imagine the Committee on Judiciary General, even unto its last moment in this present session, had nothing but pleasant thoughts in their minds, and that the last thing they would think of would be that time was the essence of the contract; but it seems to me that all the members of the Senate have in view the giving of clocks and watches. Whether or not their thought is that maybe they will be able to have some member arrested for violating the Derrick Law I do not know, but there is one thing certain—we will surely have to be careful just what we are going to do about these various timepieces that are being handed out.

I want to say to the members of this Senate that as presiding officer of the Committee on Judiciary General I have found in this session one of the finest, most willing, most able bunch of lawyers that I have ever known to have been gotten together in any committee. Every man was willing and anxious to do his part; and we succeeded on each day in cleaning up the Calendar for the previous day, thus having before this session at all times the bills in working order. It certainly was a loyal committee, a hard working committee, a committee composed of men who were interested in their duty.

Insofar as this gift is concerned, it dawns on me now just how things were; but I am afraid I will have to go into some of my home life in order to explain these things to you. I have a lovable wife. She is here, and I must say that or take the consequences when I go home. I have a very adorable boy, of whom I am very proud. They seem to have an arrangement between them—the boy buys father a Christmas present that will suit mother; mother buys father a Christmas present that will suit the boy. That seems to work out all right on Christmas, but it looks very much to me—because I own three watches—as though mother suggested this watch because it would be a very nice thing for the boy to have. And if I can get the consent of the men who donated this present—and I am going to ask you to vote onthe question now—if I can get your consent that at this time I may transfer this gift to my boy—if you will all agree to it and vote "Aye."

MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE ON JUDICIARY GENERAL. "Aye".

Mr. SALUS. The "Ayes" have it, and I am going to ask the young chap to come over here.

Mr. President and members of the Senate, I want to tell you, that as I stand here now with this watch in my hand and this young man by my side, whom I consider one of the finest boys that God ever had control over,—that I want to convey to you my heartfelt and earnest appreciation for the many considerations you have shown me in this session. This will be a memorable day in the history of my life and in the memories that will come. It will be history in the days of this young chap, and history in the days of his mother. It will be history in the days of every one in this state or in this country that bears the name of Salus. There is only one family in the entire United States that bears that name, and that is my family. And from all four corners of this great United States—and my family is scattered throughout the United States—this will be a Memorial Day.

But I am going to say to this young chap, as I hand him this watch, that I want him at all times to bear this day and date in his memory, to recall the occasion; and long after I am gone and forgotten may you men, your faces and your kindnesses, bring back to him pleasant recollections of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, of its Senators, and of his father and mother—who may have gone, by that time, to meet their Maker and pay their price for the lives that they have lived. May he follow to the best of his ability the example that I feel I have set, and on that work improve, and make of himself a better man and a better citizen.

On behalf of this boy and of my family and of myself I thank you, one and all.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HONORABLE CADWALLADER M. BARR.

Mr. STITES. Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Senate, if it be true that the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania stands in the forefront of the States of the Union, it is perhaps worthy of comment that no branch of our legislative activities is of greater importance than the cause of education. Perhaps second only to the great committee looked after by the earnest Senator from Lehigh, Senator Schantz, and that other important committee, the Committee on Judiciary General, stands the Committee on Education.

Thomas Jefferson in his long life taught the virtue of raising the intelligence of the average citizen; and when he came to die, so profound was his interest in the cause of education that when he wrote his own biography he forgot that he had been Minister to France, he forgot he had been Secretary of State and twice President of the United States, for when he wrote his own epitaph he said this: "Here lies the body of Thomas Jefferson, author of the Virginia Statute for religious freedon, author of the Declaration of Independence and founder of the University of Virginia."

What more magnificent occupation could one have in his life than to be engaged in moulding and influencing the lives of little children? We all, I think, when we speak, will say with the poet:

"No change in childhood's early day,
No storm that raged,
No thought that ran,
But leaves its track upon the clay
Which slowly hardens into man."

The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, has served as Chairman of the Committee on Education. I have sometimes thought when I looked at him earnestly at work that he had caught the spirit of an old Hindoo legend that I ran across the other day in browsing around through some books. The legend runs like this: "Learn as though you would live forever. Live as though you would die tomorrow."

The Senator from Allegheny County has had his heart in the cause of education. Those of us who know of his early youth, and his struggles as a poor boy, up through the difficulties of days of toil and nights of sorrow to ultimate success, know something of that fierce spirit which exists in his heart wherever children are concerned, and which accounts for some of those fervent speeches he has delivered upon the floor of this body.

That quaint and witty Senator from Blair County, Mr. Snyder, refers to the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr, as our Stormy Petrel. I think there is something apt in that, and if I might propose a toast in presenting Senator Barr this beautiful lamp and incense burner, which is here, I would say something like this:

"Here's to our Stormy Petrel;
His middle name is Fight;
He rocks 'em and he socks 'em
Morning, noon and night;
He bangs 'em on the five-yard line;
He clips 'em from the rear;
Here's a health to our Stormy Petrel:
'Long life and hope and cheer.'"

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I am afraid I am a good deal like the little boy that was handed the incense pot. He did not get it to the place for which he started, and when the intonation came, "Where, Oh, where is the incense pot?" he appeared at the door and said. "It is in the vestibule—too darn hot!"

The Senator from Montgomery has thrown such a swift one that I am afraid I am going to muff the ball; I do want to say to the Senators here that there has never been anything in my life that I have appreciated as much, and for which I have been as grateful, as the fact that this Senate, and, too, the House of Representatives, stood by Bill No. 200; and the appropriation bill was passed here last night for $75,000. That meant the difference between the poor house and bread and butter for teachers who are lying on their beds of sickness, deaf and blind, and who have given long, long years of service to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the children whose lives are to make up the body of citizens in this great Commonwealth in years to come.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I have no knowledge of any finer act that has ever been done by any body in all the world than the State of Pennsylvania has done in this particular instance. Obviously I am deeply grateful, because I know the situation, having canvassed it; and to the members of the Committee on Education, for your patience and for your intelligent exercise of the oath of office that you took, in the way you handled all the many educational bills that came to the Senate committee, I am saying to you that you have never done a finer or more splendid piece of work, nor you never will; because I believe that this committee and this Senate has stengthened the Acts of Assembly that have been passed previously, and that this State will finally take its place in the Union in matters of education.

The beautiful lamp that has been offered to me as a symbol of love by this Committee is an indication to me of the conviction that I had long ago: The longer I live the more I believe that I know but little, but I earnestly strive to see the light; and I hope—not for myself but for every man in the Senate—that we will go on and perceive the right as God gives us the light to see the right in the days that are to come.

Mr. President, I am deeply obligated—words do not come easy on an occasion of this kind, but I can say honestly, in accepting these beautiful gifts, that I am leaving this Senate without one single thought or memory of malice toward any man in the Senate—of this session or any other. Life is too short; and I know, with James A. Garfield, that no man is so cursed by fate and no one is so utterly desolated but that some heart, though unknown, responds to his own.

We have had differences of opinion. We may have differences of opinion, but that is no reason why those differences should cause a group of men or women, all struggling for the same ideals, to split asunder, and never again be able to reassemble to the point of friendship.

It belongs to the life of every man to live it as God wants him to live it,—for God, sacrifice and service as the years roll on.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO THE HONORABLE JOHN G. HOMSHER.

Mr. HUFFMAN: Once again we have arrived at the close of a session of the Senate of the great State of Pennsylvania. And it is fitting at this time to give expression to the sentiment of the members of this body as felt toward those upon whom so much of the burden of the orderly conduct of the business of the Senate depended.

To you, Mr. President Homsher, is due a large mead of this credit. With your habitual equanimity you have presided over this session of the Senate with impartiality and fairness and honesty not only toward the partisans of the dominant party, but as well toward the members of the minority party. I may be permitted to say for the minority party there has been no act or decision from the President's chair to which any member of the Democratic party has either publicly or privately taken exception so far as known to the speaker.

This has led to the closing of this session of the Senate without ill will or rancor lingering in the minds or hearts of any of the members of this body toward its presiding officers.

Because it is the custom, because of your long and faithful services in this body, because of your honorable conduct of the office of President pro tem. and because of your able unassuming and kindly qualities as a man, it is with the greatest pleasure that the members of the Pennsylvania Senate extend to you to-day as a token of their esteem and affection, this cabinet, a representation of which, I herewith hand you.

Mr. HOMSHER: Mr. President, Fellow Senators and Friends: The occasion finds me in a situation where I am at least able to take care of myself. I am used to being praised, and I must ask your indulgence if I fail in words to adequately express the deep appreciation I feel at this magnificent testimonial of your friendship and good will.

Down at Strasburg there is one of the best women in the world, the wife of my youth, who still abides with me.

For forty years she has been the main factor in the management of a somewhat large, and by her, much indulged family and she has made a home where all of us love to be. When she was informed that she would have the selection of a present from the Senate of Pennsylvania in commemoration of my having been honored by being elected as its President Pro Tempore, she said "let it be something for yourself", and it was only by a round-about way that we learned that what she would like the most was a new piano.

This splendid instrument is now in our home. It is a marvel of value and elegance. It will remain there while both or either of us live, as a remembrance of your friendship, and then go to our children as an heirloom.

For my wife and myself, I thank you most heartily. We wish you and each of you happiness and contentment, and that you may have "Peace like a river, and joy like a running stream."

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL TO HONORABLE JOHN G. HOMSHER.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of the Senate, about the last official act at the closing of every session of the Legislature is the presentation of a new gavel by the Chief Clerk to the retiring presiding officer, and on behalf of the Chief Clerk of the Senate I am going to present now to Senator Homsher his gavel, declaring the termination of the present session.

As you well know, in all well-regulated organizations, or in every well-regulated legal body, the gavel in the hand of the presiding officer is the emblem of his authority; and by its use he calls the flock together, and its sound upon the desk is notice to the members that the time to work is at hand, and that frivolity and other misgivings must be set aside, and we must come to our earnest work.

It is a wonderful thing to have authority; but when you once place authority in the hands of such genial, lovable character as our present President Pro Tempore is, it is a pleasure to realize that he knows what authority means, and knows how to handle it with kindness and indulgence. And on behalf of the Chief Clerk I am going to present to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate this gavel, hoping that Humanity's Ways and Means Committee may tax him with much pleasure, that the Almighty's Committee on Appropriations may grant to him many years of life and happiness; and when the last days come, when the Almighty shall sound His gavel, may the Senator on his day of Judgment hear the Almighty say, as we are willing to say "Well done, good and faithflu servant. Well done."

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, Mr. Chief Clerk and Fellow Senators: This gavel I shall prize as one of my most treasured keepsakes, and I thank you heartily for it.

I have greatly enjoyed the duties of the office and thank you all for your uniform courtesy and friendliness to me.

This is not a swan song. While I have been a member of the Senate for a long time, I always want to think that I am coming back again, and I like it so well that I will not be kept from coming back without a hard fight.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there any objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Senate do now proceed to the election of a President Pro Tempore, and that the clerks act as tellers.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as Chairman of the caucus of Republican Senators, I have been directed to place in nomination for the office of President Pro Tempore the name of the Senator from Philadelphia, the Honorable Samuel W. Salus.

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, I am directed by the Democratic members to place in nomination for the office of President Pro Tempore for the interim the name of the Senator from Monroe, the Honorable Harvey Huffman.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the nominations be closed .

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The roll will be called by the Chief Clerk.

The roll was taken as follows:

FOR MR. SAMUEL W. SALUS.

Aron,	Earnest,	Kunkle,	Quigley,
Baldwin,	Einstein,	Leslie,	Schantz,
Barr,	Eyre,	MacDade,	Snyder,
Bonbrake,	Freeman,	Mansfield,	Steele,
Brown,	Gelder,	McNichol,	Stites,
Buckman,	Griswold,	Miller,	Vare,
Coyne,	Harris,	North,	Weingartner,
Culbertson,	Heaton,	Norton,	Woodward,
Daix,	Huffman,	Painter,	Homsher,
Davis,	Joyce,	Patton,
Derrick,	Krause,	Phipps,

FOR MR. HARVEY HUFFMAN.

Baumer,	DeWitt,	Lanius,	Sones,
Betts,	Kutz,	Salus,	Sprowls,

The PRESIDENT. The Clerks agree in their tally, and the result of their ballot is Mr. Samuel W. Salus forty-two votes and Mr. Harvey Huffman eight votes. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, has received the vote of the majority of all the members of the Senate and is, therefore, declared elected to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate to serve during the interim beginning after this day's session has adjourned.

The Chair appoints the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, and the Senator from Monroe, Mr. Huffman, a committee to escort the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the Bar of the Senate, where the oath of office will be administered by the Honorable John E. Fox, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, We have the honor to present the Honorable Samuel W. Salus, of Philadelphia County, the President Pro Tempore elect of the Senate, prepared to take the oath of office.

The oath was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, I desire to present to you your newly elected President Pro Tempore, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, members of the Senate of Pennsylvania, at this time I want to express my sincere appreciation of your kindness. I want to say to you that I have been a member of the Senate since 1911, and this is the first time I have ever stood at this desk. I have presumed at all times that the ones who stood here had a sort of higher authority than I had, and I never thought that I had a right to get up here and look in this direction. So this is rather an innovation to me.

I want to say to you men that I hope in 1927 we shall all appear here at our next meeting of the Assembly; and it is my sincere hope and wish that all of the faces that I now see will be back here again. That, of course, I understand is hardly likely. Time changes things. Men's home conditions and other conditions make it such, very often, that they do not return; but to those of us who will return—and I hope I shall be among those that do—I hope we shall meet in 1927 under a new condition.

I hope that when we meet again we shall meet, here in Harrisburg, under conditions that will present to us a Governor—of course, my first preference for a Governor is that he be a good, substantial Republican Governor, and that all the members of the Senate who are Republicans may be in a position to consistently support whatever platform he may be elected on, and that we shall have a happy and contented organization; that there shall be no Independents; that there shall be no blocs; that there shall be a division of this Senate into two parties, one a Republican and the other a Democratic Party, which we all consider the main parties in our State; and that we shall be able to get together and have a full understanding with each other; that we may be able to work in conjunction with whomever may be the Governor, and do good work for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its every aspect.

I have no platform. I have no suggestions. I want to be up here and be the servant of the members of the Senate, and I shall try to help each and every one, after he once becomes a member of the Senate, whether he be a Republican or a Democrat, so that when the time comes after the session is over he may be able to go back to his own constituents and state that he did the best he could for the particular interests of the district he represented.

You have been listening to a lot of talk from me today. I am a little upset and unnerved, and at this time I am going to close by saying to you gentlemen that I highly appreciate this honor, and hope, if I should succeed in going through the session of 1927, that you one and all may have the same consideration for me at the close of that session as I know you have now. I thank you, one and all.

THURSDAY, April 16th, 1925.

The House met at 12:15 o'clock A. M.
The SPEAKER (Thomas Bluett) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. George P. Donehoo, offered the following prayer:

Our gracious Father, we thank Thee at the commencement of a new day and at the closing of the session of this Legislature, that Thou has been with us and guided us and kept us until this hour. We thank Thee that this session unlike nearly all of the sessions for many years past, has passed by and that this morning, in this House, there is not a single desk draped with tokens of mourning, that among all these men and women who are here there is not in this House a single one missing by death. We thank Thee also for the good fellowship and good feeling of brotherhood in this House through all of its sessions, and we are sorry to part from each other. We pray Thee that the bonds of friendship and of good fellowship which have been forged in this place by our gathering together may last forever and forever, until God's great eternal day comes and when his children of every race and of every creed come into the Father's house, which shall never be darkened by sorrow or death. And so, Thou great God of Israel, we thank Thee for Thy care, for Thy protection and for Thy blessing; and may it be upon us all as we go from this place to our homes. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I have been requested to explain just what this bill is. We have heard a great deal this session about the teachers retirement fund. You have heard me explain a number of times the change in the fund from what it has been, I am referring now to Contingent Fund No. 2, which was before assessed at 5.6 per cent of the teachers salary. Originally Contingent Fund No. 2 was made up by contributions of the different school teachers of the different school districts, and the State of Pennsylvania equally. Up until the present time that has been assessed at 5.6 per cent of the teachers salary. Two years ago some of us requested them to compile a table to see if we could not extend that time, which was to be originally thirty years, but after going along for a certain time they found that that sum was accumulating faster than was expected and would run out, at 5.6 per cent, in eighteen years. That sum, however, was about $4,000,000 annually to be paid in by the State, and $4,000,000 by the district. So the actuaries have ascertained that by reducing that from 5.6 per cent to 4 per cent, it will make about $1,025,000 less per annum by the district and by the State each, or $2,050,000 per annum, that will carry on for twenty-five years. Therefore, this bill is for the purpose of adjusting that fund, so that now it will run along for twenty-five years instead of eighteen years, but the amount that is paid this year will be $1,025,000 less per district and less for the State than it has been heretofore.

There is another feature of this bill, and that is that teachers who had left the service for a period by the old bill did not participate when they came back but they came back as new teachers. This provides that if they come back and pay up the funds as they are assessed for their five years, provided they come in by 1926, that they shall participate in that fund also.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1300, (Senate Bill No. 395), entitled:

An Act providing for the rebuilding of county bridges over two hundred feet in length on improved primary State highway routes in counties of the sixth seventh and eighth classes by the Department of Highways at the expense of the Commonwealth

Whereas The taking over by the Commonwealth of certain public roads and the selection and improvement of a portion thereof as a primary system of main highways for through or interstate traffic has thrown an undue burden upon certain small counties through the rapid depreciation of bridges theretofore sufficient and which counties because of small population and little wealth are unable to meet this new burden so imposed by the Commonwealth Therefore

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, in arriving at a highway program the Department of Highways, after having decreed to accept the maintenance of the roads in the omnibus bill, and the maintenance and construction and reconstruction of roads through boroughs, requested that the matter of bridges should not be placed at the expense of the department during this session of the Legislature. Among other things discussed was the matter of the state assuming the maintenance of State aid roads. That was given careful consideration, but after some weeks of study and consideration that was requested not to be included. In view of that, and in view of the agreement had with the Department by the Committee on Public Roads, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. STAVITSKI. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1700, (Senate Bill No. 1064), entitled:

A Joint Resolution Disapproving the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States relative to the labor of persons under eighteen years of age

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call the attention of the members to what this is. This is a disapproval of the child labor act, which we have head so much of; in other words it provides that the court shall fix the law of the state as to child labor in the different states, taking away the states rights to legislation on that bill. You remember they had the bill in the Senate sometime ago. Now we are putting our disapproval on that act so that it may be certified to Congress. Therefore, we should vote "aye" on this resolution.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1565, (Senate Bill No. 656), entitled:

An Act to amend article fourteen and article seventeen of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the volation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call your attention to this bill. On page 7, if you will look at the top of page 7, is this provision:

"That the board of school directors of any district in which there is located a high school receiving a share of any appropriation for the salaries of high school teachers shall deduct its share of the last such appropriation received for the teacher or teachers in said high school from the total cost of tuition before computing the per capita cost of tuition in order to certify properly for pupils attending the same from other districts"

In other words, your small districts which are taking pupils from other districts must pay their teachers out of the funds that they receive from the pupils from other districts, and therefore, you pay your teachers out of those funds instead of out of the appropriation which you are entitled to from the State. You can see what that will do to any school district, and you will see especially what it will do to the poor school districts, and the poor high schools. It seems to me that that is a very bad proviso, and I think that you gentlemen who have high schools in your districts, where you have pupils from other districts, had better look to that before you pass this bill. A number of men in this House have come to me and told me about that clause in this bill, and it seems to me to be a bad one.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker, I would ask that we pass this bill for the time being until we can get a thorough understanding of this section.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection we will pass this bill for the time being. The Chair hears none, and the bill is passed.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1679, (Senate Bill No. 657), entitled:

An Act to further amend section one thousand four hundred and twelve of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. JAMES F. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HESS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am sorry to oppose the desire of any member of the House on any bill on this calendar, so I simply want to state the facts with reference to it to the House, and let them do as they see fit in the matter. At the time of the arrangement of the various roads in the omnibus bill, additional mileage was placed in that bill in consideration of the repeal of this road, so that this bill ought to pass.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appear to have it,

Whereupon a division was called for, and 77 members voting in the affirmative and 54 in the negative the question was determined in the affirmative, and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, can we go back to the top of page 4, and take up House Bill 1565, (Senate Bill 656), which was passed over temporarily.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House this bill we held up a while ago until we could get information on it. MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1732, (Senate Bill No. 1134), file folio 4293, entitled:

An Act applying to third class counties only and regulating the selection drawing and summoning of all jurors and talesmen and defining their qualifications in such counties creating a jury board and defining its powers and procedure providing for the appointment of a clerk to the jury board and fixing his maximum salary providing for the custody of the jury wheel and the filing and custody of jury lists providing for the public drawing of jurors and the methods thereof giving the trial judge the right to excuse jurors prescribing the time of challenging jurors or the array and regulating the procedure if array is quashed repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith on page 5 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. DUDDY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, how did the gentleman who made the motion vote?

Mr. CHRISTIAN MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I voted "aye".

The SPEAKER. Then the gentleman cannot make the motion.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 927, (Senate Bill No. 334), file folio 4147, which was passed temporarily a short time ago.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 927, (Senate Bill No. 334), entitled:

An Act to further amend the second paragraph of the fifth section of an act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws seventy-three) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to call your attention to the provisions of this bill. Unquestionably the purpose sought to be accomplished is a good one in that it reduces the necessary quorum of members of a corporation not for profit, where those boards are large in number, but unfortunately it goes further than that, because it provides on page 3 that in no event shall a quorum be less than five. This question comes into my mind,—is that latter provision fair when you consider that many boards in charitable organizations, and in churches, frequently are seven and even less than seven in number. If this bill would prevail, it would mean that in every such case, at least five members must be present. On my own account I shall be obliged to vote against this bill because it constitutes a quorum larger than an ordinary majority of such a small board as seven or less in number.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I have knowledge of several corporations whose total number of directors is less than five. How would it affect those?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, in reply to my friend, Mr. Brown, I would say that where a corporation has five or less you could not act unless all five were present if this bill should prevail.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. I would like to interrogate the gentleman further.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. That bill also provides for a corporation with only three directors, does it not?

Mr. STERLING. No, I think not, sir.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. In the first page of it, beginning on line 26, page 2, the board of directors or trustees shall not be less than three.

Mr. STERLING. I notice that the bill does say that the board of directors or trustees shall not be less than three, but it seems to me that that makes the argument even stronger against the bill.

Mr. THOMAS J. BROWN. That is what I am trying to bring out.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LUDLOW. Would it not satisfy your purposes if we were to amend by striking out lines 10 and 11 on page 3 which provide that at no time shall a quorum be less than five members of the board.

Mr. STERLING. That would be entirely satisfactory to me if you can find time for the Senate to concur in the amendment.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to suggest to the gentleman from Montgomery that if his thought is to amend, there is another error in the clause just ahead, where they have stricken out the provision that in corporations for profit less than a majority is a legal quorum. I don't know that we are prepared to say at the present time that in corporations for profit less than a majority shall be a legal quorum. It seems to me that there are so many structural defects in the bill that it ought to be dropped from the calendar.

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 927, (Senate Bill No. 334), be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. FRATT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

It was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1751, (Senate Bill No. 1029), file folio 4001, entitled:

An Act to amend sections two three four five seven nine twenty twenty-four twenty-five twenty-six and twenty-eight of the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws six hundred and seventy-eight) entitled "An act relating to and regulating the use and operation of motor vehicles and vehicles propelled by or trailing after motor vehicles requiring the registration of the same and the licensing of all operators thereof providing the fees therefor and the disposition of such fees prohibiting the unauthoried use of and tampering with motor vehicles limiting and defining the powers of cities boroughs incorporated towns townships and counties as to the regulation of the use and equipment of motor vehicles and the taxing registration or licensing thereof imposing certain duties on the State Highway Commissioner and on proprietors of public garages providing procedure and penalties for violations thereof and the disposition of fines collected and regulating the service of process and proceedings in actions for damages arising from the use of any motor vehicle" as amended was defeated yesterday, be reconsidered.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was defeated on final passage yesterday, I personally voted against it under a misapprehension as to its provisions. I have since been informed that a number of you were under the same misapprehension. This bill is an amendment to the Motor License Laws of 1919. They are amendments which are being fostered by the Department. The bill has several very excellent provisions that the Department is very much interested in seeing effected. For instance, just to talk of a few of them, it provides that no automobile may be stopped by a policeman unless he be in uniform, something we have contended for all session. It also provides that motor vehicles shall not be parked at a sharp turn or curve or on approaching the crest of a hill where there is not an unobstructed view of five hundred feet. It further provides that unlike the present law, if a motor license is taken out after November 1st, the fee shall be one-fourth of the regular fee rather than as at present one-half of the regular fee. It also provides that where a transfer is made of an existing license for the unexpired year prior to January 1st, that transfer shall be made free of charge. At the present time we are paying the full license fee.

The provision of the bill which created most dissatisfaction was that which provided that the over-all width of an automobile truck may be 96 inches. That provision is for Pennsylvania conforming with what is practically the law all over the United States. All our adjoining sister states have the same provision, Delaware, New Jersey, Maryland, West Virginia and Ohio have this law. There is an exception, however, to this—motor trucks having hay or straw—thereby taking away any hardship that the former might have. Because it contains all these excellent provisions, and because the provision as to the 96 inches practically makes it conform to what is now the law, because any number of machines are traversing our roads with the 96 inches width, we ought to vote for this bill. I might also say that the new highways that are being constructed are being constructed wide enough to permit two lines of traffic and have enough free space where the width is 96 inches, since they are building roads now eighteen feet wide. Therefore, I thing we ought to reconsider the vote by which this bill was defeated and vote favorably on it.

Mr. NORTH. Mr. Speaker, yesterday when we were considering this bill, I, too, was laboring under a misapprehension.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question, recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1773, (Senate Bill No. 1242), entitled:

An Act declaring it to be larceny for any person to steal take or carry away or to be engaged in stealing taking or carrying away any property growing or being on the land of another

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I should like to have some one in this House, if there is such a person, explain the necessity for this bill.

The SPEAKER. Is there anyone who can explain the necessity for this bill?

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill is the result of a decision recently given by the Berks County Court, declaring that a man charged with carrying away or stealing apples could not be convicted, inasmuch as apples growing on trees were not considered personal property. The disposition of that case left the fruit growers of our county and other parts of the State without any adequate protection. This bill, therefore, is intended so that anybody entering an orchard and taking fruit growing on fruit trees can be convicted of larceny.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Sarig, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SARIG. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STERLING. Is it not a fact that under the provisions of this bill, that any person who may innocently go into the fields and pick flowers may likewise be convicted of larceny?

Mr. SARIG. I think it says "fruit," if I remember. I do not have the bill before me now.

Mr. STERLING. The bill provides "stealing, taking or carrying away any kind of property whatsoever growing or being on the land of another."

Mr. SARIG. I think that the matter of common sense would enter into the question at that point. I don't think there would be any jury anywhere in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that would convict a person of larceny because he may have entered the field and picked a few flowers. I think we can trust our courts as a matter of common sense to apply the law in a common sense matter.

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think Mr. Sterling is right in his interpretation of this bill. If we extend larceny to carrying away property that is growing or part of real estate, we are striking down the distinction between the real and personal property. If a man goes on another man's property and takes something that is growing and is attached to the real estate, he is subject to prosecution for trespass, but if you are going to make it part of the real estate which he takes away and make it larceny to take away something that is attached to real estate, you are breaking down that dictinction, and you are making a mistake. For that reason I think this bill should not be passed.

Mr. SARIG. Mr. Speaker, I want to call the attention of the House to the fact that we are frequently troubled also with automobiles coming out driving through the country districts, and stopping near some corn field, picking off ears of corn, sometimes a whole bushel, and carrying them away. You cannot even now convict them of larceny. The farmer has absolutely no adequate protection under the present law. With the fruit growers, the same condition prevails. If this bill is to be voted down by this House, it will mean that our fruit growers all over the State will be left without adequate protection and that they had nothing adequate to protect them from this form of larceny which is now getting to be quite too common all over this Commonwealth.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

An Act to further amend section three of the act approved the nineteenth day of March one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (Pamphlet Laws five) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to establish a county court for the county of Allegheny and prescribing its powers and duties regulating the procedure therein and providing for the expenses thereof' approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven constituting the said court the juvenile court of said county and prescribing its organization jurisdiction and powers therein and otherwise" as amended by requiring the salary board to fix the salaries of all employes of such juvenile court.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker, at the request of the sponsor of this bill, I move that the bill be dropped from the calendar.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1768, (Senate Bill No. 449), entitled:

An Act to amend an act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and ninety-three) entitled "An act to provide for the licensing and regulation of public dance halls and ball rooms and for the regulation supervision of public dances and balls in cities of the first second and third classes" extending the provisions of said act to boroughs and townships of the first and second classes and imposing powers and duties on certain county officers

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, is there anybody in the House who can answer inquiries as to this bill?

The SPEAKER. Is there anyone present who can answer inquiries as to this bill?

Mr. ALEXANDER. This is simply extending the law as it relates at the present time to cities of the third class, to boroughs and townships of the first class, relating to the licensing and character of dance halls.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Delaware?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Alexander permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Delaware realize that in order to have a dance in a first or second class township, it is necessary to go to the county seat and get a permit for it? If you have an American Legion dance or a local dance of some kind, you must go to the county treasurer to get a permit. I am referring now only to townships.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Under this law, in townships of the first class all your permits are granted by the Secretary of the Board of Commissioners.

Mr. LUDLOW. But this does not do it. If you will look at page 3, line 4, the permit is to be granted by the county treasury.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR.

Mr. BURKE. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 1768, (Senate Bill No. 449), be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. BURD P. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a resolution relative to the Tri-State Treaty between New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania involving the Delaware river and the waters of that river. A conference committee was appointed on the part of the House and Senate to make an effort to adjust the difference of opinion on the compact that was introduced this session. That conference committee was not able to agree, excepting that they agreed to pass the matter for this session, and for that reason this resolution is presented at this time and I hope it will prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the resolution?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its nonconcurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 1134, entitled:

An Act applying to third class counties only and regulating the selection drawing and summoning of all jurors and talesmen and defining their qualifications in such counties creating a jury board and defining its powers and procedure providing for the appointment of a clerk to the jury board and fixing his maximum salary providing for the custody of the jury wheel and the filing and custody of jury lists providing for the public drawing of jurors and the method thereof, giving the trial judge the right to excuse jurors prescribing the time of challenging jurors or the array and regulating the procedure if array is quashed repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith

And has appointed Messrs. Davis, Schantz and Leslie a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) (already appointed) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from the amendments non-concurred in by the Senate?

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, you just heard the report from the Senate that there was a conference committee appointed by the Senate to act upon the amendments placed in the jury bill, Senate Bill No. 1134. The motion made by Mr. Sterling is to the effect that the House recede from the amendments made to the jury bill, Senate Bill No. 1134. Permit me to draw to the attention of the members of this House the fact that the amendments made to Senate Bill No. 1134 were made, as I have been informed, by Judge Maxey himself. I think inasmuch as a conference committee has been appointed by the Senate, the proper procedure is for this House to appoint a conference committee and let the conferees thresh out this bill. I therefore sincerely hope, in all fairness, that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sterling will be voted down.

Mr. STERLING. Obviously, members of the House, inasmuch as this matter relates exclusively to the county of Luzerne, I have no direct personal interest in it, but the fairness of the proposition, considering the fact that we are now almost about to adjourn, does appeal to me. I have the highest regard for Senator Davis, as well as high regard for Judge Maxey, whose name has been mentioned on the floor of this House. If the House does not recede from its amendments, a conference committee on the part of the House will be appointed, and with only virtually a few moments left here, the probabilities are that this measure will not be in such shape by the time we adjourn that it will reach the Governor. The problem, as it appears to me, is this: The bill was introduced in the Senate, passed the Senate and came to the House, and here in the House, in order to satisfy the observations made on the bill by some Senators, those who were interested in the bill took opportunity on this side to make amendments. When the bill, so amended, reached the Senate in the late hours of this session, the Senate refused to concur. Now, gentlemen, it seems to me in fairness to the parties who are interested in this legislation, and surely not for the purpose of reflecting one bit on our friend, Senator Davis, this measure should be given a fair chance, and for that reason and upon that basis alone, I believe that this motion should prevail.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I fully appreciate the fact that this bill pertains to counties outside of my own, as the gentleman from Philadelphia said that the bill does not pertain to counties that he was interested in. There have been some things pertaining to this particular subject matter that have been the cause of much confusion, much debate in this House. During the session of 1925 there has been an epidemic of jury bills before this body; Allegheny county had its pro rata share and Lackawanna county evidently has had its pro rata share. This House passed a bill for Lackawanna county sponsored by the Senator from that district, Senator Davis. That bill passed this House and the Senate and is now in the hands of the Governor, a bill which I believe would serve the needs of that community. This bill, in which we are asked to recede from the amendments that have been inserted in this House—I wish to call the attention of the members of this House to the fact that these amendments were made in the committee; they were not made on the floor of the House. They are amendments that are correcting numerous errors, and those errors must be corrected in the original bill and it must be printed, and any effort to vote for a motion of that kind to recede would not be in order. I am particularly opposed to this motion by reason of the circumstances that have been connected with the altering of this particular bill. The spectacle of the judge of that county lobbying on the floor of this House in the interests of the bill, button-holing members of the Legislature and promiscuously running up and down the floor of the House, speaking for myself, I believe is not a very beautiful spectacle for a jurist of any bench. I think the jurist should be on the bench and should not come down here as a professional lobbyist. In this bill on which I am asking you to vote "No," it places more power in the judges, the place where we don't want it to be. We want it to be in the hands of the jury commissioners, presided over by the head of the court of common pleas, under the Republican form of government. I therefore ask each and every member of this House to vote this motion down.

Mr. HARDING. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Marcus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, with pleasure.

Mr. HARDING. I only want to ask him one question in relation to the presence of a judge here acting for a good cause, as he pleases. Is not a judge an American citizen?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I do not consider that interrogation.

Mr. HARDING. Should he not be just as much interested as any other American citizen in right or wrong?

Mr. MARCUS. I am willing to discuss the motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Alexander and Mr. Staudenmeier and were as follows:

PRESENTATION EXERCISES.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in our midst we have a friend who is familiarly known to us as Doc. Heffernan. But as there is such cold weather and so much snow outside I know at this time, you would like to hear from him. I move, Mr. Speaker, that the House now hear from Doctor Heffernan, alias Santa Claus.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the motion of the House, the Chair is now turned over to the Gentleman from Philadelphia, Doctor Heffernan.

MR. HEFFERNAN IN THE CHAIR.

The CHAIRMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it was our intention today, in having these talks, to have Hon. Samuel Perry act as chairman, but in his absence I will try to fill in until he arrives.

Members of the House, through your kind and generous spirit, you have made it possible for your committee to hand to our honored speaker, the officials of the House and the employes their biennial gifts. I only wish that it was possible for us to give every one a present, but that seems to be impossible. However, we have made what we considered a fair selection, and the gifts will be distributed.

Members of the House, ladies and gentlemen, standing here at the Speaker's desk recalls to my mind an afternoon in December last, in the Republican campaign headquarters in Philadelphia, when I had the honor to place in nomination, on behalf of the Philadelphia delegation, the Hon. Thomas Bluett for Speaker of the House of Representatives. I said then, as you all know now, that if elected Speaker of the House, he would make an honorable, clean, fair and intelligent Speaker. I think he has more than lived up to every expectation that we had in view. No one in the world can doubt his honesty because there was never a decision during this session that was questioned. He never had to leaver this rostrum on a point of order. Every decision that he made here was sustained. There was no trouble. He has gotten through with the business of the House and we will be ready to adjourn sine die at 12 o'clock noon.

It is not always the cost of a gift that men take into consideration. They take into consideration from whom it comes and what it means. To you, honorable Speaker who are so modest, I wish to say that I asked you one day if there was some little thing that the Members could give you as a kind of token and you said to me "all I want is their friendship." You would not tell me what to get for you. So the committee got together and we dicided that we would give you something for your home and we have here today a grandfather's clock the significance of which is this: that you are the father of some living children; and we have also here, recognizing your great love for high class literature, a complete set of Modern Eloquence. These books were secured personally in New York last Friday. These gifts are given to you and they do not represent by any means the affection and esteem in which we hold you. We ask that God may bless you and leave you to us for many, many years to come.

The SPEAKER. Mr. Chairman and Members of the General Assembly of the Sessions of 1925, Ladies and Gentlemen: This is one of the times when my heart fails me. To say that I appreciate these things that you have given me would be putting it, indeed, very, very mildly. I cannot find words to tell you how much I appreciate these gifts that you have given me, but I do appreciate perhaps —yes, I do appreciate more than even these gifts the goodwill that I think I have in your hearts.

These are always sad times, it seems to me, when we meet to say good-bye and that makes it all the harder to say what I want to say. But you can understand that during my work here you have been most kind to me and have been most helpful to me in anything that was necessary to be done. There has not been a hint or wish or anything that I have made that you have not gladly complied with. If there has been any success in the handling of this legislative session it has been because of the co-operation and good will that I have had from every member of the House and every employee and every page boy, everybody. The members and everybody else it seems to me, have been unusually desirous this session of having a harmonious session of the House of Representatives for 1925. I hope we have succeeded, but I hope above all things that the friendships that we have made in this session of 1925 will go down with us through our lives to every end and that we will appreciate all the friendships of each other all the way through, and that we shall many, many times think of the pleasant moments that we have spent together. We could not always, of course, agree on everything. That would be impossible among a large body of people like this, but in the main we have pretty well agreed and, if I understand this program of legislation aright, it seems to me that we have given the State a pretty good schedule of acts of assembly for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that we love so well.

I am not a grandfather, as might have been suggested, but at the same time I do greatly appreciate this beautiful clock which you have given to me. I shall keep it in my home as a continual reminder of the harmony that existed in our hearts during the session of 1925; and these books I shall very, very often browse in and get some inspiration, I am sure, from them, and when I am doing it I shall think of the many happy days spent in the session of 1925. Thank you again.

RESOLUTION.

Miss GRIMES offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

Whereas a wonderful clock adorns the platform of the House,

Be it resolved that the House recommended that this clock be set according to legal standard time.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes at this time the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, who will say a few words regarding the gift that was sent to our good Chief Clerk, Thomas H. Garvin, in Sharon Hill.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Chairman, I felt the other evening that I had answered to the response that was made this morning in telling the members of the House that the radio set had been installed. You all received the message from Mrs. Garvin explaining to you how much it was appreciated by our good friend Tom Garvin. I don't have a message for you this morning as to his condition, but I know from what has already been said that the gift has been deeply and very greatfully appreciated.

The CHAIRMAN. Now we will turn toward Allegheny County and call upon our good friend, Joe Marcus.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Chairman and members of the House much has been said whether or not the pen is mightier than the sword and after having watched Milton Burgner work in this House, I am more than ever firmly convinced that the pen is mightier than the sword. Those of us who know him, know him and love him by reason of his modesty, and his most unassuming nature. Those of us in sessions prior to 1925 as well as the session which is now rapidly coming to a close know that the doors have always been thrown wide open. We have always been extended every courtesy, everything to make our duties more pleasant. He is a great advocate of that old saying: "eat an apple a day and keep the doctor away." In the days that are closing I know that I convey the thought of each and every member in this House in wishing Milton Burgner a continued success. We hope whatever his ambitions may be in the future, that they may be realized. The members of the Session of 1925 desire to show their appreciation to our friend Milton by presenting to him this magnificent pin, which we hope will always be a pleasant reminder of his former associates of the session of 1925, and on each and every occasion that he wears it may he wear it with health, enjoyment and nothing but sunshine.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair now recognizes the Honorable C. J. Goodnough, of Cameron County.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, ladies and gentlemen: I have a great privilege this morning, and I am very happy because I have the opportunity of addressing you only for the purpose of paying a tribute to a dear old pal, one who has been my guide, philospher and friend for lo these many years, one who has performed a like service for every member of this House who has had occasion to ask it—not only the members of this House but of every house that has convened within these walls for a long, long time. I refer, of course, to the distinguished head of the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Parliamentarian of the House, Mr. James N. Moore. Jim Moore,—and I say "Jim" with no thought of disrespect, for I well know that if my name had been James, I should have asked no greater privilege than that my real friends would call me "Jim"—"Jim" Moore was a member of this House from Butler County in the sessions of '95, '97 and '99. He was Journal Clerk in the session of 1903, 1905 and the special session of 1906. He was assistant clerk in the sessions of 1907 and 1909. The Legislative Reference Bureau was created by the Act of Assembly of 1909, and "Jim" Moore was appointed Director by Governor Stuart in 1909. He was reappointed by Governor Tener in 1909. He was reappointed by Governor Tener in 1911. Governor Brumbaugh reappointed him in 1915, and Governor Sproul did the same in 1919. In 1923 the Legislative Reference Bureau was reorganized and made a part of the Legislature. The Act provides that the election of the director shall be bi-ennially by the Legislature in joint session and "Jim" Moore was elected in the session of 1923 and again in the session of 1925. So it is that for upwards of a third of a century he has given to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the State that we love so well, the best that in him is. I think you will agree with me that service such as this can only come from one who is deeply grounded in patriotism, and the idea of real service. Looking back over the vista of the years, it seems to me that I can see him come along step by step, meeting the difficulties and overcoming the obstacles from time to time until finally he reaches the goal of his ambition. Speaking of the type rather than of the individual, I say coming up through the vicissitudes incident to human life, we pass through happy childhood and beautiful youth, and so on, to the freedom of manhood from which point of vantage on the top of the hill we can see in the distance the place where the shadows lengthen as the sun goeth down. Our friend whom we honor today is not old. Sixty or sixty-five or fifty-five, or some other figure might represent the days of the years of his life, but whatever the mark may be he still has his best years before him, for he has those years when his mature mind is divested of the fancies and follies of youth, cleared from the strife and animosity of earlier manhood, he finds his extreme pleasure in the fellowship of man, he has reached the place where we can say to him as was said of David of old, "He was full of days, honors and riches." We hope and believe that his riches, houses and lands, stocks and bonds, are sufficient for all of his needs, but we know that in those greater riches, those riches which consist of the love and affection of his family, the honor and esteem of his neighbors and friends, he is rich beyond compare. So my friend, on behalf of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, the members of the House of Representatives, I present to you this envelope. Its contents are known wherever language is spoken, or wherever men are found. It is known by various names. The early Americans called it "wampum," the German may say "der geldt," in up-to-date America, we say: "Here is a bit of jack." But greater, far greater, than the intrinsic value of this token, more beautiful than the lines and angles of the artist upon the bank note, I present to you, sir, the love and affection of the members of this House of the Legislature.

Mr. MOORE. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, I thank you very much. I appreciate this gift and I shall always remember the session of 1925.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Hall.

Mr. HALL. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the House, there are some things which we can do without. We all appreciate the sunshine and we know what benefit it is to the human race, but there are times when rain is just

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

of every race and of every creed that I have met in my life—and I have met them everywhere from the American Indian to the modern Frenchman—I believe down in the heart of every man and woman in this world there is the looking up to the great God with the same feeling of hope, that there are the same sorrows and the same joys, and that we are all, of every race and of every creed, children of the same Father. Sometimes some of the members say to me; —as they would very kindly put it—"Don't you think your children are getting rather noisy?" I said I was brought up in a family of children and we get noisy and I get noisy, but they are doing just what men do all over this world and sometime we are all going to come to the place where we come eye to eye whether the man be a Frenchman or Chinaman or American Indian, and we are all one common blood and God is our Father.

I thank you, ladies and gentlemen, more than I can express for this token from you, and hope as you go to your homes that the prayers which have been uttered here and the prayers which will be made in the future will be broadcast not through the broadcasting station of our good friend, Mr. Alexander, but broadcasted out into God's great broadcasting station that carries the message and the heart of the Eternal God. I thank you.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Chairman, do not let me interfere with this program, but I am about to leave. I have listened to these presentation speeches and have noted the oratory and enjoyed their logic, but I want to emphasize one thing here in the closing hours of the session of 1925, and that is, the taking leave of Charlie Jones, of Clearfield County.

The CHAIRMAN. I will now call upon Mr. Edmonds, of Philadelphia.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. Chairman, it is a great pleasure to me as your representative to make the presentation to the sergeant-at-arms, Mr. Harry Berger, because of his faithful and fair service, and also because he is a fellow townsman and a neighbor of mine. I don't see where Mr. Berger has placed himself at this time, but I am sure he is on the floor of the House somewhere. In his absence, however, I would like to say that this present to him comes with the hearty good-will of the members and with our sincere good wishes that his future course in life may be happy and prosperous.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes Miss Grimes of Allegheny County.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the House. A happy phrase of our dear chaplain one morning in one of his many beautiful prayers was one that stuck in my mind, when he described us as happy warriors for truth. I think it aptly describes the way we fight each other to the bitter end on this floor for just so much of truth as we are able to discern. We have our worthy Speaker, and we have his able assistants and aides at the desk, we have the captains on the floor, and we have, for instance, our Mr. Alexander, leaping into the fray like Sir Galahad of old, whose strength was the strength of ten, because his heart was pure. We bore with the rest of the Four Horsemen of the Apothecaries, we liked to hear Dr. Lorenzo Thomas stand up for high moral issues. Another captain, Mr. Edmonds and Mr. Ludlow, always ready to put us right, Mr. Sarig, always speaking for the farmers, and other great captains on the floor, while the rest of us were down in the ranks watching our pages and messengers. One part of this great army that fought here the battle, that we have not thought very much about and that has been very important and very necessary has been our postoffice where our letters and messages had to be taken care of and transmitted to us. I thought I had achieved a wonderful standing in this House, but I realize now that I have been almost a dismal failure in comparison with the lady who presides in the post-office, so I am going to say just one word right here to put myself in a little better than I thought I was, but I am not in comparison with her. I want to say to you that Mrs. Schaffer stole my thunder when she said she loves you all. I also love you all. I also extend to you an invitation when you come to Pittsburgh to come to my home, and to say that the only diploma of any kind that I have from any school is one from a cooking school, and I will prove it to you. I say this because the lady whom I have the honor to present a little contribution as an estimate of our esteem is the lady who handles the mails. I say she has it all over me, and all the other ladies of the House when it comes to that. It is a very great privilege to me to be asked to extend for you our appreciation to Mrs. Campbell, our postmistress.

The CHAIRMAN. We will now hear from our good friend, Mr. Haas, of Lehigh.

Mr .HAAS. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, you will note that I had no difficulty in obtaining the attention of the Speaker this morning. It is my pleasure this morning to present a gift on the part of the House to a man whom many of us know. A man who I think has the saddest and lonliest job connected with the Legislature. When you and I go home our friend Dave Hopkins stays here as custodian of the House to keep it so none will take it away. He is kind and courteous to all of our consituents when they come here. He is delighted to show each and every one of them where each one of us sits, and that is a mighty handy thing for lots of us fellows that may some day come back here. Every one knows where Alexander sits, Franklin Spencer Edmonds and Ben Ludlow, but the rest of us have to be shown and Dave Hopkins is the fellow who shows our friends where we sit. It is with great pleasure on the part of the House that I extend to Mr. Dave Hopkins, our faithful servant and our good friend, this gift from the House.

Mr. HOPKINS. Mr. Chairman, ladies and gentlemen of the House, I want to thank you for your deep appreciation of the kindness of your custodian. I have tried ever since I became custodian of the hall of the House to do everything that would be pleasing to the members of the Legislature, Senators and their friends and the travelling public. I have tried in the sessions to make each one of you comfortable. With the aid of my friend, Clarence Seiler, before the next session of the Legislature we will try and have installed an automatic ventillator so that every one may keep cool during the session.

The CHAIRMAN. The next treat in store for you is our brilliant Caruso, Harry Smith of Lehigh County.

Mr. HARRY SMITH. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, on behalf of the members of the House I present this gift to Mr. Frank Bowman, custodian of the House store room.

The CHAIRMAN. All of you know the brilliant legislator from Schuylkill County, and I will now call on Mr. Studenmeier.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, it gives me great pleasure on behalf of you to extend your kindliest feelings and greatest respect to the Assistant Desk Clerk, Mr. Freiler, a sturdy son of that region whose chief product is anthracite coal, who is still taking care of the machinery of State.

The CHAIRMAN. The next annoucement is one that I know will give great pleasure to all the members of the House, and that is in calling upon Mr. Philip Sterling.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, Eddie Moore, the Assistant Parliamentarian of the House, is a worthy son of a worthy sire, and like that sire he is genial, courteous, affable and reliable, but unlike that sire he has youth. I know that it is the profoundest wish of this House that he continue, as has Jim Moore continued, in active service with you in the sessions to come. Our tribute to him needs no material vehicle, but the custom has grown to express our appreciation in terms of the material, and it is on your behalf that I present him with this little envelope.

Mr. MOORE. I was just sitting back there in the corner, Mr. Chairman and gentlemen and ladies of the House, reminiscing a little bit. A little incident this morning caused me to look back to the time when I first came into the House. Going from the rostrum here to the Senate a gentleman stopped me and he said, "Page, can you get me a chair for this lady." I said, "Yes, I would be very glad to do it," and I got him a chair and walked on. Eighteen years ago I came into this House and all of that time I have been associated with Mr. James N. Moore. Not many boys are just quite so lucky as I am in having two fathers. James N. Moore in not my father, but I love him as I do my father, and I want to say that if I have attained any degree of usefulness at all to you members the credit does not belong to me, but it belongs to James N. Moore, because all the training that I have had has been under him. I have the greatest respect and admiration for him and I just want to take this opportuntity today of expressing it. I thank you very kindly for your gift.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Lucas.

Mr. LUCAS. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, there is another employee of the upper House there who served us day and night. There are times when he came here to the House with a message that did not always suit us, especially my friend from Delaware, and George Offenbach of Erie, is that employee. His duties are to carry messages from here to the Senate and from here to the Governor and back again. George has been a good fellow and I know that he will appreciate this little token on behalf of the House.

The CHAIRMAN. Now we get ready for a nice little talk from a brilliant man, one whom we have the greatest respect for, Mr. Alexander, of Delaware County.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Chairman and friends, we come here at the beginning of each session mostly strangers. We have our differences during the session and at the end we shake hands as friends. It has been truly said that the parting and the leaving of that friendship is a sad one. But every cloud has its silver lining, and the silver lining in my cloud at this time is the opportunity of transmitting a token to another which will carry to that one a certin degree of happiness. I am a firm believer that the greatest religion in this world is happiness, and now is the time to be happy and this is the place to be happy, and the best way to be happy is to make everybody else happy. Now, Bert Lynch, you came here with a great handicap. You came here, coming from the greatest county in the greatest Commonwealth in the world, and great things were expected from you, and I do not only appreciate the fact myself, but I have been told by others who have surrounded you in your work that you have fulfilled your duty perfectly. It gives me great pleasure, having the honor of recommending you for your position, of transmitting from the members of this House this token of their appreciation for the fulfillment of your duties.

Mr. LYNCH. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, you have me stopped. I thank you kindly. If you will all come down to the corner, I will buy you a drink.

The CHAIRMAN. Ladies and gentlemen, if there is any one thing in this world that we all admire it is a man who can love and who knows how to love. The gentleman I am calling on now is a man I would say with a hundred hearts. He can love more than any man in this House. He is the delight of the ladies; and I have the pleasure now of introducing him to you in the person of Charlie Baldi.

Mr. BALDI. Doctor, a great privilege has been bestowed upon me and there was a little forerunner in the statement of Clyde Harer. Clyde Harer said he had a very good job this morning, and that was the presenting of an envelope to a lady of the House. I called him to my desk and I said, "I beat you by five" We can have happiness, we can have money and we can have friends, but there is one class that we really cannot do without and that is women. No matter how we look at them they are all fine. Now, I have these names here and I must confess that I cannot pick them out. I am going to ask all these young ladies to make their appearance in front. They are Mrs. Cohen, Mrs. Lind, Miss Miller, Miss Wright, Miss Latimer and Mrs. Musser.

RESOLUTION

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. Speaker, I diskike very much to break in at this time, but I wish to offer the following resolution:

Mr. CRAIG offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

Resolved, That the House extend its congratulations and best wishes to the genteman from Philadelphia, Mr. Baldi, whose wife sailed for Europe yesterday.

Mr. BALDI. I don't know just how that resolution has been presented. If it is whole-hearted, I want to thank you.

The CHAIRMAN The next gentleman that I am about to call upon is one who is very popular here with all the men in the House,—there is no question about it,—in the person of Eddy Haws.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, the Chairman of the Committee has indeed given me a very pleasant duty this morning. As said before the good things are always kept until the last, and I have the unusual privilege this morning of dealing with one of the most important units that is connected with the organization of this House. The unit that must be here just as regularly as the clock points to the hour at which they are under the supervision of our friend Clarence Seiler, and known as the fleet-footed Mercuries, something which we cannot do without. I take great pleasure in presenting these envelopes to the page boys.

The CHAIRMAN. The next gentleman I am about to call upon is Mr. Long, of Chester County.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Chairman and members, my very brief remarks will be addressed to one of three men who are working in this House this morning, Mr. Edward Jauss. While you are a new member of the Legislative Journal force of expert reporters, you are ripe in experience. You have been as keen on the trail of a member bursting forth in a spasm of oratory as a lean hound following the scent of a rabit scared from its squat. I have no doubt that deep down in your heart you wish our habits were in some respects like the rabbit and that we stirred from our squat but seldom except when we make our exit. To you our speeches have meant only a few more curves and a few more curliques but you have been exceedingly faithful in your task, and on behalf of this House I have the great pleasure of presenting you with this "thousand dollar liberty bond."

The CHAIRMAN. I now call on Mr. Schilling for a few remarks.

Mr. SCHILLING. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, it is a very great pleasure to refer to another member of the reporting force of this Hosue, one that we must not forget. I have never given him much trouble following my speeches. I know that he has done a lot of good work in this House, but while doing so he was always ready and willing to revise the speeches of the members that when they go back home they can read their great speeches in the Journal. In reccognition of that, Mr. Locke, I present you this envelope on behalf of the House.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Ludlow, another popular member of the House.

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, the hour is growing late, but even in the late hours I must tell the truth, and like the college student who said to the other about a girl with whom he had been dancing, "Did you say she dances like a zephyr" and he said, "Hell, no, I said like a heifer." I want to join in the presentations on behalf of the House to this group of scribes, who must take down whatever we say, however we say it, and then a few days later some member says, "I rise to a question of personal privilege." The Speaker asks you to state your question of personal privilege and then you say, "Mr. Speaker, on page so and so of the Journal, I was recorded as voting 'aye.' Since I have gone back home my constitutents have convinced me that I must have voted 'no,' and I should like to be so recorded." Now, Mr. Chairman the man to whom I present this is one of the group that gets writer's cramp and it is our fault and I am one of the chief offenders; and now to one of these men, Jean Moyer—and you want to get this down Jean, it is about you—I hand Jean Moyer, of that staff, this envelope containing that which in Elizabethian days was called simoleans, in the days of Montezuma, in Mexico, it was called mazuma, but George Cohen calls it plain 'eagles' and sings about until the eagle screams. In behalf of the House, I am delighted to present to you this token of our affection.

The CHAIRMAN. There is another rising young legislator I wish to call on no win the person of Mr. Blumberg, of Philadelphia.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, I should like first to discharge a pleasure that does not emaniate from the Santa Claus Committee. I have been requested to call the attention of the House to the painting on the right hand side showing Independence Hall, and showing the large elm tree to the left of it. I suppose that pleasure is mine because I, too, like our colleague Mr. Hart, represent rather a historical district. It is my privilege to live within the very shadows of Independence Hall. That last elm tree was felled just two years ago and some few persons were fortunate in securing large pieces of the wood of that tree. I have been requested by the Women's Pennsylvania Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, through it superintendent Mr. Carlisle who holds in the highest esteem our speaker, to present to our Speaker a piece of that wood modelled in a gavel of authority. With this gavel we hope that the Speaker will certainly have enough authority to preserve order, and it is my pleasure on behalf of that society, and on behalf of your friends of Philadelphia to present you with this gavel, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Again I say I ought to have enough authority and enough emblems of authority at any rate so that my commands cannot be questioned either in my own home or abroad I greatly appreciate, however, the thought of my friends in Philadelphia, and the Women's Pennsylvania Society for the prevention of Cruelty to Animals. I shall appreciate this gavel for its historical connection, and its being made of the elm from the City that we love so much, the City of Brotherly Love, the City of Philadelphia, I thank you again.

Mr. BLUMBERG. The Santa Claus Committee has also requested me to present to a very valuable aid to the House this envelope. Mr. Wagner is Mr. Burgner very valuable assistant downstairs. He has always been at our service, and in behalf of the House I desire to present to him this envelope as a token of the appreciation of his service by the House.

Mr. CHAIRMAN. I will now call upon our good friend from Pittsburgh, Mr. Stadtlander.

Mr. STADTLANDER. I desire to preface my remarks on behalf of the visiting firemen from Pittsburgh by presenting to the Chairman of the Committee on Banks and Banking a Pittsburgh Smoke.

Mr. Chairman and members of the House, an Irish maid called to her mistress and said, "Madam, I quit tomorrow." So the mistress said, "What is the trouble?" the maid said, "Sure, I am goin to be married." The mistress then said; "Well, Mary couldn't you give me a little more time so that I may secure some other help?" The maid said "No I cannot do it very well." The mistress said, "Why?" Mary said, "I don't know Mike very long and I don't have the courage to ask him to postpone it." That is true in this case. The young man who is in Mr. Burgner's office is probably not so well known to us but he is a valuable assistant of Mr. Burgners, and it gives me very great pleasure, on behalf of the members of the House, and especially the Santa Claus Committee, to present Mr. Kaufman with a token which we hope he will use to some advantage.

The CHAIRMAN. I take great pleasure at this time in calling upon Miss Grimes for a few remarks.

Miss GRIMES. Mr. Chairman and members of the House, want to say just one word that I think you will all agree to about a very wonderful person that we are all very greatly indebted to. Nothing that we can give this lady in the shape of a present would repay her for what she does for us. I refer to Miss Barnett, who gives us our pay checks. Miss Barnett has carried on ably the work of our Chief Clerk, Mr. Garvin, and I think we all owe her a very great debt of gratitude for bearing the load that she has and doing so well for us and for him I want to add this to what has been said this morning.

The CHAIRMAN. I am sure that we all appreciate the great services rendered by Miss Barnett, and I feel that before the members leave for their homes, that Miss Barnett will be remembered.

RESOLUTION.

The Chairman laid before the House the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the stenographers to the members of the House of Representatives, hereby wish to take this opportunity of thanking the members of the House for their appreciation of our efforts to please them, and we love you, too.

The CHAIRMAN. So far as the gift giving is concerned, it is now at an end.

SPEAKER BLUETT IN THE CHAIR.

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 124.
